

Mrs. Robert Colver, president

Mrs. Harold Silberman, vice president

Auxiliary Elects New Leaders

Mrs. Robert (Lela) Colver has been elected to serve as president of the Hospital Auxiliary for the 1966-1967 year. She succeeds Mrs. Richard (Betty) Leach.

In her new role as president, Mrs. Colver will serve as a coordinating officer to see that Auxiliary matters run as smoothly as possible. She will preside over the 150 active members of the Auxiliary and will work closely with the five elective and seven appointive officers on the Auxiliary Executive Board and the two full time Auxiliary employees, Mrs. Nancy Craven, office manager, and Mrs. Mary Daugherty, director of volunteers.

A member of the Auxiliary since 1959, Mrs. Colver has given over 1800 hours of service. In addition to serving as vice president during the past year, she has chaired the nominating, finance and membership committees.

A native of Kansas, Mrs. Colver received her A. B. degree in history from the University of Kansas and taught in the Kansas public schools for almost three years before leaving the state.

Mr. Colver is the assistant director of the Duke University Counseling Center.

The Colvers have two sons, Robert and Charles, who are presently enrolled in their mother's alma mater—Robert is a sophomore and Charles a senior.

Assisting Mrs. Colver will be Mrs. Harold (Audrey) Silberman, who has been elected to serve as vice president for the 1966-1967 year.

Mrs. Silberman has been a member of the Auxiliary for three years. As vice president, she will work directly with Mrs. Mary Daugherty, director of volunteers, and the chairmen of the following services: guide service, pediatric service, shop cart service, library service, hostess service and reception service.

At the present time, she is involved in the coordination of the Auxiliary's annual orientation course, which is conducted in eight two-hour sessions during February and March.

Mrs. Silberman's husband, Dr. Harold Silberman, is an assistant professor of medicine at Duke. The Silbermans have three sons: Andy, 10, Mike, 7, and Matt, 2.

Mrs. Silberman is a native of Maplewood, N. J., and attended Lasell Junior College in Auburndale, Mass.

Those serving with Mrs. Colver and Mrs. Silberman are: Mrs. William Nicholson, recording secretary; Mrs. E. M. Webb, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. W. Minah, treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Everett, historian; Mrs. John Macduff, nominating committee; Mrs. Alan Manchester, chapel committee; Mrs. Richard Leach, gift shop committee; Mrs. George Maddox, hospitality committee; Mrs. Patrick Kenan, projects committee; Mrs. H. Shelton Smith, programs committee; Mrs. Frank Bowers, publicity committee; Mrs. William Lynn, ways and means committee; and Mrs. Ray Brown, membership committee.

Keeping in Touch

• GLAD TO HAVE . . .

Mrs. Sandra Powell has replaced Mrs. Gill Lunsford as Dr. Martin Lakin's secretary for three months while Gill is in New York with her husband, Skip, who is training with IBM. Skip formerly worked in the Bursar's office. Mrs. Susanne Stowell, whose husband, Jerry, is a medical student, is working as a technician for Dr. W. D. Obrist. Mrs. Patricia Puryear of Roxboro has replaced Julie McDonald as secretary in the Printing Department. Mrs. Barbara Baker has joined the supervisory and senior Physical Therapy staff. The Bakers moved here from Charlotte and Mr. Baker is service manager at Carpenter's Chevrolet Company. Mrs. Sara Habercomb is a new technician in the Psychophysiology Lab and her husband, Mark, is a graduate student in the Chemistry Department. They come to Duke from Decatur, Alabama, where they were married in December.

The Urology clinic announces the following new personnel: Mrs. Barbara Urban, LPN, Mrs. Marie Lawson, Saturday clinic secretary, Mrs. Shirlianne Costeo, R.N., and Mrs. Karen Griffin, bacteriologist. Mrs. Janice Pittman has transferred from the Private Medical Lab to the office of Mr. Louis E. Swanson where she will serve as secretary. Wesley Taylor has joined Medical Arts and Illustrations as a darkroom specialist. Carol A. Bowles has transferred from Medicine to Ophthalmology where she is secretary to Dr. Arthur C. Chandler, Jr.

New residents in Dermatology are Dr. Robert S. Gilgore and Dr. Stacey Miller. Susana Berry, originally from Texas and recently from the N. C. Cerebral Palsy Hospital, has joined the staff of Occupational Therapy. Alice Brady has joined the Department of Radiology, transferring there from the Department of Surgery. Bill Sims is the new foreman of the Surgical Electronics Shop, Clara Vanderbilt has joined Medical Records as file clerk, Linda Renager from Pennsylvania is a new secretary in Neurology and Marleen Williams is a new clerk-typist in the Bell Building.

• SOON TO WED . . .

Wendy Swann, Physical Therapy, is engaged to Fuller Honeycutt and their wedding will take place in June. Dr. Robert A. Doyle, resident in Psychiatry, is engaged to Elizabeth Furman of Richmond and Newport News, Virginia, and they will be married on May 14 in Virginia. Carol Rusian, staff therapeutic dietitian, and Robert E. Bergen, senior in the School of Engineering, have announced their engagement and plan to be married on June 11.

(Continued on page 8)

Auxiliary Orientation Course

The Hospital Auxiliary is again offering its annual orientation course to interested active members of the Auxiliary. Members may come for the whole course or any part of the course. All active members are invited to participate.

The remaining sessions scheduled for the 1966 course are:

Wednesday, March 16, 1966

2:00—3:00 Dept. of Radiology—Mr. Cahoon,
2nd Floor
3:00—4:00 Clinical Research—Miss Kay

Wednesday, March 23, 1966

2:00—3:00 Hyperbaric Chamber—Mrs.
Elwell
3:00—4:00 Central Supply—Mrs. Cheek
4:00—4:30 Evaluation of Program—Miss
Clark