

DIETETICS AWARDS

sketches about each nominee for the February voting, and the sketches of the two winners follow:

David Currie

David Currie has been a member of the Dietetics Department for nine years. He is married and has a family. His job is to bring up the early orders and to get the meat out for the cooks so they can start the ball rolling for the day. He takes hot trucks to the wards for the noon meal. He keeps a record of the ice cream we have on hand and also makes ice cream for the department. He's liked by everyone.

Vira Barefoot

Vira Barefoot has worked in the Dietetics Department for twenty-seven years. She worked as a baker, did an outstanding job as an employee and was promoted to a supervisory position, as our cafeteria and main kitchen supervisor relief. She always does more than is expected and is highly liked and respected by all.

The selection of two Dietetics Department Employees of the Year is to be an annual event, and each year the winners will be announced on or near Valentines Day.
