

KEEPING IN TOUCH

(Continued from page 7)

● NOTES OF INTEREST . . .

Dr. Deryl G. Stow, resident in Otolaryngology, began active duty with the Army in March and his basic training will be in New Mexico. Dr. Robert A. Doyle, resident in Psychiatry, has left to serve in the U. S. Airforce. Bernice Belue, Director of Occupational Therapy, has returned from a vacation spent skiing in Austria and Switzerland and Mrs. E. S. Raper, R.N. in SPDC, vacationed at Delray Beach, Florida, in February. Jean Holbert, R.N. in Delivery Room, has returned to work after undergoing surgery. Robert King and Wesley Taylor of Medical Art and Illustration were hospital patients in February.

Mrs. Martha Scoggins, Director of the Housekeeping Department, attended a University of Florida short course for hospital housekeepers on "Linen Control; Communications, and Methods Improvement" sponsored by the Florida Crown Chapter of the National Executive Housekeepers Association and the Florida Hospital Association. Held in Gainesville, Florida, the course attracted about 90 housekeepers from thirteen states.

● ENGAGEMENTS . . .

Carol Upchurch, secretary for Dr. Frank Clippinger, is engaged to Warren Whitehurst who teaches in Scotland Neck and their wedding is set for June 25. Janie Bland, L.P.N. in OR, is engaged to Maynard Price and their wedding will take place in April. Jerry Rodenhizer, R.N., and Herb Pippis have announced their engagement.

● GOOD-BY

To Mrs. Bobby Redding and Jerry Eidenier who have left the Medical Center Library. To Margaret Whitehead, formerly a technician in Microbiology, and to Mark Howze who has gone to the Medical College of South Carolina as a medical photographer. To Raymond Andrews, former head of the Anesthesia Laboratory, who has moved to Memphis, Tennessee, and to Mary Frances Cashion who has resigned as ENT clinic and Audiology secretary. To Mrs. Peggy Riley who worked in Psychiatry. To Mary Nowiczewski, L.P.N. in OR, who left in February to work at Prince George General Hospital and to Carolyn Hamilton, Medical Records, who has moved to Griffin, Georgia.

Also to Joyce Cash, Medical Records, who is now with General Telephone Company; to Mrs. Kathy Michel, secretary to Mr. Bindewald, whose husband will be graduating from Law School in June and who will be returning to New York; to Linda Lowe, R.N., who has left Matas; to Mrs. Judith Lowry, R.N., who has left Howland; to Nancy Ferrell who has left the Vocational Rehabilitation Office; to Mrs. Broxton, relief dietitian, who has moved with her husband to Washington, D.C.; and to the three ANA exchange visitor nurses, Berilie Swan and Margaret Thomas of Australia and Hanora Bygrove of Ireland, who will be spending the next six months in Galveston, Texas.

● BUNDLES FROM HEAVEN . . .

It's a boy, born January 30, for Jeanne Coffey, R.N., and Mr. Coffey. Belated congratulations to Madell Gattis, L.P.N. on McDowell and her husband on the birth of a son, Allen Frederick, Jr., in December. Dr. and Mrs. Rubin Bressler announce the birth of a daughter, Karen Ann, on January 26 and Dr. and Mrs. N. B. Ratliff, Pathology, have a new son born last October 13. Mrs. Gerald Lawson, technician in SPDC, and Mr. Lawson announce the birth of a daughter, Camela Diane, of January 18 and Mrs. Ethel Clemons, L.P.N. on Holmes, and Mr. Clemons have a new son born on January 10. Chuck and Terry Daly have adopted a baby girl, Cindy Marie. Terry was formerly Dr. Eisdorfer's secretary in the Department of Psychiatry. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Taylor, Pathology, announce the birth of a daughter on January 3. Mrs. Winifred E. Hawley (Martha) of SPDC has a new granddaughter, Margaret Ann, born to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cranford, Jr., on March 20.

● WEDDING BELLS . . .

Barbara Hemans, R.N. in OR, was married on February 27 to Raymond Hayes. Kathy Westbrook, Medical Records, and Tommy Aysene were married on February 6 and Mary Beth Wilson, also of Medical Records, and Andrew Morris Carroll were married on February 5. The wedding of Myrtle Gentry, L.P.N. on Reed and William Charles Hogan, Bacteriology, took place on February 11. James Cook, son of Mrs. Mabel K. Cook who is receptionist in Ob-Gyn, and Brenda E. Tally were married on January 18. Marie Stone, secretary on Drake, and Leroy Brewer were married on October 16, 1965. Margaret Twigg, R.N. in Recovery Room, and Dr. Marvin Pomerantz were married on February 24.

● CONDOLENCES . . .

To Mrs. Irene Moore, SPDC nurse's aide, whose father, Mr. Tippet of Roseboro, died on March 16.

To Dr. R. Frederick Becker, assistant professor of Anatomy, whose father died on January 11.

To Roxanna Day, L.P.N. on Halsted, whose mother died on January 11.

To Dr. William A. Gay, Research Associate in Pharmacology, whose mother died on March 20.

For those who are considering contributions to the 1966 Cancer Crusade, it might be interesting to note that during 1965 there were 15 grants at Duke University Medical Center for cancer research supported by the American Cancer Society. The total value of these grants was $327,123. Of this total about $155,000 was spent during the year. The total contribution to the ACS from Durham County in 1965 was $11,200.

Mrs. Hilburn and Mrs. Aysene of Medical Records and Harry Miles of the Department of Ophthalmology are shown in the Carousel Room, a pleasant and popular area for coffee breaks and meals.

A wide selection of snacks is available in the Carousel Room, and a grill is provided for those wishing to toast their sandwiches. The new area is operated by the Duke University Stores.