• NOTES OF INTEREST . . .

Judy Griffin, physical therapist, and Emy Villanueva, Instructor in Physical Therapy, spent a week recently touring Florida. . . . Congratulations to Mrs. Gussie Woods Ray and Mr. Ray who celebrated their first anniversary in April. Gussie works on the tray unit in the Department of Dietetics. . . . Mary Beth Wilson was married to Andrew Morris Carroll, and Beth Smith, OPD registration, was married to A. Louis Rickman, Jr., on April 24. [Ed. Note: Congratulations are also due Mrs. John C. (Ruth) Dailey, Jr., PDC interviewer and writer of "Keeping In Touch," who has been appointed a member of the Durham County Alcoholic Beverage Control Board. She is the first woman to ever hold that position on the county ABC board and will serve until May 1, 1967.]

• CONDOLENCES . . .

We extend our sympathy to Dr. Lenox D. Baker, Chief of the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery, upon the death of his wife.

The new business manager of the Outpatient Department, Mr. Byron Russell, is shown discussing one of the department's forms with Miss Betty Lewis.

New OPD Business Manager Appointed

Mr. Byron M. Russell has joined the Outpatient Department staff. He will be filling the newly created position of business manager.

Mr. Russell will handle all the business functions of the Outpatient Department clinics. He will be working with accounting, program sponsorship, billings, collections, statistics, handling of funds, and patient financial classification. Previously, these duties were the responsibility of the director.

"The new position was created as a part of the Outpatient Clinic reorganization, so that the clinics may be more responsive to increasing demands of outpatient services, education and research activities," said Mr. Jon Jaeger, Director of Outpatient Extension Services.

Before coming to Duke, Mr. Russell was with the Erwin Mills Division of Burlington Industries as an assistant supervisor in the invoice control section.

The Russells are natives of Burlington. Mrs. Russell is a public health nurse in the Durham County Health Department.
