

Auxiliary Strikes a Bargain: We Hide 'Em, You Hunt 'Em

Thanks to the Hospital Auxiliary, the children on Matas and Howland wards are not forgotten during the time of the annual Easter Bunny Visitation.

Under the able direction of Mrs. Connie Oosting, chairman of the children's Committee, Auxiliary volunteers fill small baskets with "grass" and a toy chick and hide the 150 plastic eggs that will later be "discovered" by those children well enough to participate in the hunt. Each child gets to keep his basket and three eggs. Then they help to fill baskets for the children who can not leave their beds and join in the fun. Among those Auxiliary volunteers who helped Mrs. Oosting plan the 1967 festivities were: Mrs. "Pick" Currie, Mrs. Polly Stanley, Mrs. Jean Bingham, Mrs. Audrey Silberman, and Mrs. Madge Hauser.

Shown below carrying baskets to the bedridden children are "Freddie," Mrs. Oosting, and Auxiliary volunteer Mrs. Jean Bingham. Nancy Willwerth is the Howland nurse shown at right admiring the colorful eggs found by her small patient.

An' I foun' 'em all by myself . . . almos' . . .

Thas' me in the firs' picture . . . m' name's Freddie. I been huntin' eggs . . . 'n I foun' lots, only they wouldn' let me keep but three. I had to gib all th' res' to th' others couldn' come hunt eggs.

Hey, ladies! The mens don' got no baskets . . .

Photos by Thad Sparks

KEEPING IN TOUCH

● Family Additions (Continued)

Mrs. Jackie McKeighan, secretary to Dr. J. B. Sidbury, has a baby girl, Cheryl Katheryn, born December 25. Dr. and Mrs. George D. Miller, of the Division of Dermatology, have a baby boy, Christopher Alan, born February 16. Darrell Slaton, formerly with Messenger Service and now nighttime Business Office supervisor in the Out-Patient Department, and his wife adopted a baby girl, Margaret Ellen, March 17. A baby boy, Derek, was born December 28 to Mrs. Kay Adams, nurses aide in Physical Therapy, and her husband. Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ginn, of Pathology, have a little girl, Sandra Heather, born December 3. Medical Records Department announces the following births: to Mrs. Kathy Ayscue, secretary, a little boy, Michael Thomas, born November 11; to Mrs. Judy Wright, receptionist in the admissions division, and her husband a son, Steven Todd, born in December; and to Mrs. Billie Cole, filing department employee, a little boy, Robert, born Christmas Day. Judy and Richard Auman had a little boy, Jon Richard, born March 26. Judy was secretary to Dr. Bernard Amos. Mrs. Barbara Elwell, former nursing instructor in Inservice Education, and her husband Stan also have a son, born March 29. Stan is a student in the Graduate Program in Hospital Administration. Mrs. Barbara Burch, formerly secretary to Dr. D. T. Smith, and her husband have a baby girl, Kimberly Kristin, born March 27. Triple congratulations are in order for Assistant to the Dean Doug Smith and his wife Nan, who became the parents of triplets—two boys and a girl—on May 20.

● WE'RE SORRY TO LOSE . . .

Gail Snyder, secretary to Dr. George Maddox in Psychiatry, who left in February to live in Texas where her husband will be entering the service. . . Mrs. Mamie McClees, lab technician in