AS WE GO TO PRESS...

- ...The final United Fund total for the Medical Center is announced. Our goal was $27,100 and we went over the top to $29,153.89. The division captains were Dr. Frank Bassett and Mr. Frank Gay. Congrats to all participants!
- ...Bulldozers have started digging in the main hospital parking lot. No, they're not looking for a parking space; they're beginning the work on controlled gate parking for our patients and visitors.
- ...A nurse was observed wheeling a bassinet filled with hay toward the delivery room on Carter Ward.
- ...Don't forget the Christmas Open House! All faculty, staff, and employees are invited to the first floor dining room between 9am and 10:30, and between 2 and 3:30pm on Dec. 22. Night duty employees are invited from 10:30pm to 11:30pm in the Carousel Room on Dec. 24 & 25.
- ...Awards will be given for the three units exhibiting the most originality and attractiveness in their Christmas displays.
- ...All employees working a regular shift on Christmas Day are invited to be our guests at the meal during which they work.
- ...Thirteen men and women graduate from Duke's Physical Therapy program. They are: Miss Merle Adkins, Miss Roberta Bills, John Caramilhalis, Miss Myra Cohen, David Cornell, Miss Jane Derby, Miss Alma Files, Miss Mary Haverstock, Mrs. Sandra Herzog, Miss Carol McKee, Miss Carole Montgomery, Miss Judy Schlegel, and Mrs. Ina Welch.
- ...Mr. Swanson tells us that Rehab II will go under contract in a week or so. More on that later.
- ...A move is underway to make bulletin boards more attractive and effective, so that notices of special events, meetings and lectures will be easily seen, reviewed and revised weekly.
- ...Nadine Vartanian wife of Dr. Vartan Vartanian, Associate in Anesthesia, is having her paintings shown December 11 - January 2 at Morehead Planetarium Gallery - Chapel Hill.
- ...Auxiliary is looking for volunteers. The Duke Hospital Auxiliary cordially invites students, faculty wives, doctors' wives to become volunteers. Call Mrs. Mary Daugherty, ext. 3981.
- ...INTERCOM is taking a survey. Now that INTERCOM is well underway we would like to know what you enjoy most about it; least about it. Employees are invited to submit suggestions, news items, letters. Please call 4148, or write to Public Relations, Box 3354; for copies of INTERCOM check first floor cafeteria, Carousel Room, Main Lobby, or Public Relations Office.
