

PROFESSIONAL NEWS

New President

Dr. Leonard J. Goldner, chief of orthopaedic surgery, was installed as president of the American Society for Surgery of the Hand at the society's annual meeting in New York City Jan. 17-18.

Also at the meeting, Dr. Goldner and Dr. Stephen N. Lang of the Duke residency staff presented a paper on "Transfer of the Biceps Brachii Tendon into the Digital Flexor Tendons."

Gives Report

James F. Glenn, M. D., attended a meeting Jan. 3 in Chicago to report on his trip to Saigon in regard to the Vietnam Medical School Project.

Elected

Dr. David C. Sabiston, Jr., chairman of the Department of Surgery, was elected secretary of the Southern Surgical Association at its December meeting in Miami.

Board Member

Dr. J. Lamar Callaway, professor and people on the move

chief of dermatology, was named to the Board of Directors of the American Academy of Dermatology at the group's 27th annual meeting recently in Chicago. He will serve three years on the five-man board.

Gives Talks

Dr. Ewald W. Busse, chairman of the Department of Psychiatry, was leader of a group discussing "The Medical Student" at the Jan. 16-18 meeting of the Association of Southern Professors of Psychiatry in Atlanta.

Dr. Busse was guest speaker at the Joint Medical Speakers Program in St. Petersburg Jan. 30-Feb. 3.

Takes Course

Hüey D. Barnett, instructor in the Division of Nuclear Medicine, participated in a course in nuclear medicine technology at the Oak Ridge Associated Universities in Oak Ridge, Tenn., Jan. 26-Feb. 1.

Will Teach

Warren Bird, associate director of the medical center library, will be teaching "Data Processing for Libraries" in the School of Library Science at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill during the spring semester.

Attend Meeting

Dr. Joseph M. Malin, Jr., and Dr. John H. Grimes, senior assistant resident in urology, participated in the annual meeting of the Adjuvant Bladder Cancer Study Group in Miami Jan. 16-17.

At Conference

Mrs. Nancy Gallagher, staff occupational therapist, attended the Dec. 6-8 conference on "Management of the Spinal Cord Injured Patient" in Miami Beach. The conference was sponsored by the Committee on Rehabilitation of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

Attends Meeting

Miss Rebecca E. Owins, R. N., supervisor of operating room nursing, attended a two-day meeting at Ethicon, Inc., in Sommerville, N. J., Jan. 7-8.

Invited

Dr. David C. Sabiston, Jr., chairman of the Department of Surgery, has accepted an invitation to become a member of the editorial board of the Annals of Clinical Research published by the Finnish Medical Society Duodecim.

Gives Paper

Miss Evelyn Morgan, head nurse on Minot ward, presented a paper on nursing the cancer patient at a recent workshop in Hickory.

At AAOS Meeting

Dr. Leonard J. Goldner served as moderator of an instructional course on orthopaedic management of lower extremity in cerebral palsy at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Jan. 18-23 in New York City. Dr. Frank H. Bassett, associate professor of orthopaedics, was a member of the panel.

"The Impacted Fracture at the Base of the Proximal Phalanx of the Hand" was the title of a paper by Dr. Ralph Coonrad, assistant clinical professor of orthopaedics, and Dr. Mark H. Pohlman, orthopaedic fellow, at the AAOS meeting.

Attends Meeting

Dr. Thomas Cate, associate professor of medicine, attended the meeting of the Southern Society for Clinical Investigation Jan. 31 in New Orleans.

Visiting Professor

Dr. Blaine S. Nashold, Jr., associate professor of neurosurgery, is a visiting professor at the University of Cincinnati School of Medicine. He will deliver the annual lecture to the Cincinnati Medical Society later this month.

At Workshop

Nancy Burris, head R. N. on Reed, and Flora Smith, head R. N. on Halsted, attended a workshop in Kinston sponsored by the North Carolina State Nurses Association. The workshop was designed to orient association officers to their new duties. Miss Burris and Miss Smith were recently named co-chairmen of the membership committee for District II.

(continued on page five)

INTERCOM is published monthly for Duke University Medical Center faculty, staff, employes, students and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office, Joe Sigler, director.

INTERCOM is published by the hospital printing department.

Mrs. Sue Childs
PR assistant and Intercom editor

Mrs. Betty Linthicum
Public Relations Secretary

Editorial Committee: George H. Mack, assistant director; Sam Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; Mrs. Audrey Silberman, president of the Duke Hospital Women's Auxiliary; Douglas Smith, assistant director; Miss Julia Taylor, R. N., head nurse on Nott Nursing Unit; and James Smeltzer, assistant director of medical center personnel.