

PROFESSIONAL NEWS

people on the move

Named to Board

Dr. Nicholas G. Georgiade, professor of plastic and maxillofacial surgery, has been elected to the American Board of Plastic Surgery.

The 18-man board is the examining and certifying body for the specialty of plastic and maxillofacial surgery in the U. S.

At Meeting

Dr. Joseph A. C. Wadsworth, professor and chairman of the Department of Ophthalmology, attended the American Ophthalmological Society meeting at Hot Springs, Va., May 26-28 as a member of the council.

He also served as an examiner for the American Board of Ophthalmology May 29-June 2 in Philadelphia.

Present Papers

Dr. Yihong Kong, assistant professor in the division of cardiology, and Dr. Victor Behar, also of the division, recently presented papers at the American College of Physicians meeting in April in Chicago.

Passes Exam

Charles D. Watson, data processing manager, recently passed his C. D. P. examination.

At Meeting

Dr. William Peete, Dr. D. C. Christian, and Dr. Jerry Danford attended the American Fertility Society meeting in Miami, Fla., April 24-27. Dr. Peete and Dr. Christian participated in the program.

Presentation

Mrs. Betty M. Tyman, R. N., assistant operating room supervisor, delivered a presentation on the "Role of the Nurse in Renal Transplantation" at a teaching day seminar sponsored by the Association of Operating Room Nurses of upstate New York in Rochester May 17.

Makes Presentations

Dr. D. Robert Howard, assistant professor of community health sciences and director of the Physician's Assistant Program, presented a paper titled "The Physician's Assistant: One Approach to the Medical Manpower Problem" May 15-17 at the American Association of Medical Clinics meeting in Utica, N. Y.

Dr. Howard delivered the same paper May 22 at a meeting of the Alabama Regional Medical Program.

Dr. Howard also gave a talk on the program May 6 to the Kansas Medical Society meeting.

Dr. Howard also spoke to the Monroe County Medical Society in Rochester, N. Y., May 27.

Gives Paper

Dr. Ewald W. Busse, professor and chairman of the Department of Psychiatry, presented a paper on "The Modern Challenge of Three Score and Ten" at the Schering Symposium on Man—The Mature Years and Beyond April 16 in Chicago.

Dr. Busse, along with John Horton, a rising senior medical student, participated in the annual meeting of the American Psychosomatic Society in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 28.

Principle Speaker

Dr. David C. Sabiston, Jr., professor and chairman of the Department of Surgery, was the principle speaker at a symposium sponsored by the Dallas Southern Clinical Society March 16-18.

Dr. Sabiston made several formal and informal presentations on various aspects of surgery.

Gets Award

Dr. James J. Morris, Jr., assistant professor in the division of cardiology, has been awarded the American Heart Association's Teaching Scholarship in Cardiology for 1969 through 1974.

Attend Meeting

Members of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology who attended the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists meeting in Miami April 28-May 1 were Dr. R. T. Parker, Dr. George Wilbanks, Dr. William Peete, Dr. D. C. Christian, Dr. Carlyle Crenshaw, Dr. David Halbert, Dr. Thomas Wyatt, Dr. Charles Hammond and Dr. Richard Bechtel.

Chairman

Dr. Alan Whanger, instructor in psychiatry and a fellow in geriopsychiatry, chaired a workshop on "Resistance to Work with the Aging" at the 46th annual Orthopsychiatric Association meeting April 1 in New York City.

Appointed

Dr. James F. Glenn, professor and chief of the division of urology, has been appointed a member of the National Alpha Omega Alpha committee on visiting professorships. Dr. Glenn is the counsellor to the Duke chapter of AOA.

Honored

Miss Shirley Pohl, a medical technologist at the VA Hospital, has received an award as the outstanding med tech in Ohio. She is presently competing for national honors.

Speakers

Doris Haase, R. N., clinical specialist, and Sue Foster, R. N., head nurse on the cardiac care unit, were guest speakers at the North Carolina Heart Association scientific sessions in Charlotte May 29.

Attending from the hospital nursing staff were Carol Jones, R. N., assistant head nurse on Welch ward, and Flora Smith, R. N., head nurse on Halsted ward.

(Continued on page ten)

Intercom
duke university medical center

INTERCOM is published monthly for Duke University Medical Center faculty, staff, employees, students and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office, Joe Sigler, director.

Mrs. Sue Childs
PR Assistant and Intercom Editor

Miss June Allison
Public Relations Secretary

Editorial Committee: Sam A. Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; James L. Bennett, Jr., administrative assistant to the associate provost for medical affairs; Mrs. Brainerd Currie, publicity chairman of the Duke Hospital Women's Auxilliary; George H. Mack, assistant director, Miss Julia Taylor, R.N., acting supervisor, Nott, Strudwick, and Holmes wards.