Personnel Gets Tuthill, McClees

Among University administrative shifts this summer were several involving the Medical Center Personnel Office.

Robert C. Tuthill, formerly assistant director of personnel for the University, was named director of personnel for the medical center.

A business administration graduate of Hofstra University in Hempstead, N. Y., Mr. Tuthill has been assistant director of personnel at Duke since 1967.

In his medical center post, Mr. Tuthill succeeded Frank N. Gay, who was named to a new position as director of employment for the University.

Working as assistant personnel director is Cecil C. McClees. He had held the post earlier, but in the meantime had been serving as employe relations representative.
