

PROFESSIONAL NEWS

Gets AMA Award

Dr. Philip Handler, newly elected president of the National Academy of Sciences, has been named recipient of the American Medical Association's 1969 Scientific Achievement Award. Dr. Handler, former chairman of the Department of Biochemistry-Genetics at Duke, was presented the award at the A. M. A.'s annual convention in New York City in July.

Guest Lecturer

Dr. Barnes Woodhall, professor of neurosurgery and chancellor pro tem of the University, serves as honorary lecturer at the Congress of World Neurology September 22 in New York City.

Chairman

Dr. W. K. Joklik, chairman of the Duke Department of Microbiology-Immunology, served as chairman of the Reovirus Session at the Gordon Conference on Animal Cells and Viruses in Seattle, Wash., July 28-August 1.

Gives Papers

Dr. Jacquelyne Johnson Jackson, assistant professor of medical sociology, presented a paper on "Urban Negro Kinship Relations" at the American Sociological INTERCOM is published monthly for Duke University Medical Center faculty, staff, employees, students and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office, Joe Sigler, director, and Vance Whitfield, assistant director.

Mrs. Sue Childs
PR Assistant and Intercom Editor

Editorial Committee: Sam A. Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; James L. Bennett, administrative assistant to the vice-president for health affairs; Mrs. Brainerd Currie, publicity chairman of the Duke Hospital Auxiliary; George H. Mack, assistant director of the hospital, and Miss Julia Taylor, R. N., acting supervisor, Nott, Strudwick and Holmes wards.

people on the move

Association meeting in San Francisco September 1-5.

Dr. Jackson also presented a talk on "Changing Kinship Roles and Patterns Among the Aged in a Black Community" at the American Psychological Association meeting in Washington during the first week of September.

In addition, Dr. Jackson spoke on "Kinship Relations Among Older Negro Americans" at the International Congress of Gerontology in Washington August 25.

Makes Talks

Dr. John P. Tindall, assistant professor of dermatology, gave a talk on "The Value of Microscopic Diagnosis of Tissues in Sporotrichosis" at the Second World Congress of the International Society of Tropical Dermatology in Kyoto, Japan, August 15-20.

Dr. Tindall also co-authored a paper with Dr. Steven Romeo on "Intra-Arterial Reserpine Treatment in Patients with Raynaud's Disease or Raynaud's Phenomenon" at the American Medical Association's meeting in New York in July.

In addition, he attended the meeting of the Society for Investigative Dermatology in Atlantic City, N. J., July 12-13.

Gives Talk

Dr. Seigfried Heyden, associate professor of community health sciences, gave a talk on "Physiological Measurements in the Prognosis of Deaths - A Seven Year Incidence Study in Evans County, Georgia" at the International Gerontology Conference in Washington August 28.

Attends Meetings

Dr. Marcel Kinsbourne, associate professor of pediatrics and neurology, served as convener of a symposium on visual masking at the XIX International Congress of Psychology in London July 27-August 2.

Dr. Kinsbourne was also speaker at a symposium about attention and performance at "Hydepark", Driebergen, Netherlands, August 4-9.

In addition, he gave a talk at the American Psychological Association's meeting in Washington August 31-September 4.

Presents Paper

Dr. Ewald W. Busse, chairman of the Department of Psychiatry, presented a paper on "Psychophysiological Reactions and Psychoneurotic Disorders Related to Physical Changes in the Elderly" at the Eighth International Congress of Gerontology in Washington August 24-29.

Attends School

Miss Linda Charnes, an instructor at the Duke School of Nursing, was one of 31 nursing educators from this country, Puerto Rico and Canada to attend a two-week short course on the dynamics of nursing education. The course was sponsored by the University of Colorado School of Nursing in Denver.

The same teachers will return next June for a follow-up conference on interim projects.

Named Fellow

Dr. Robert O. Friedel, Virginia Ware Gibbons Scholar and third-year resident in psychiatry at the Medical Center, has selected as a Falk Resident Fellow by the American Psychiatric Association.

Part of his appointment to the fellowship will include participation in national A. P. A. activities.

Gives Talk

Dr. Robert H. Peter of the division of cardiology presented a talk on "Cardiac Arrest and Resuscitation" in Spartanburg, S. C., July 26.

Attends Session

Dr. Saul Boyarsky, professor of urology, attended a meeting of the American Congress of Rehabilitation in Chicago August 11-14.

Gives Paper

Dr. Eric Pfeiffer, assistant professor of psychiatry, presented a paper on "Short-term vs. Long-term Survival in Old Age: Psychological and Social Correlates into Polar Groups" in Washington August 24-29.

At Meeting

Dr. Lennox Baker and Dr. J. Leonard

(continued on page nineteen)