

INTERCOMMENTS

(continued from page seventeen)

Microbiology

Cathleen Pappas of the microbiology lab married Turner Whitted, a graduate of the Duke School of Engineering, on June 7 Donna Overman married David Ross on June 21 . Mr. Ross is now serving in the U. S. Navy Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hamilton announce the birth of a baby girl, Virginia Lisa, on June 22. Mrs. Hamilton, the former Carol McKee, was employed in physical therapy. Mr. Hamilton is a graduate student in Dr. Robert Wheat's lab Dr. Kenneth J. Payne is a new postdoctoral fellow in Dr. W. K. Joklik's lab. Dr. Payne comes to Duke from Michigan State University

Minot ward

Barbara Wagner is engaged to be married in the early part of 1970 Beth Bonner married Clif Smoot on June 8 Judy Adams, R. N., from Jacksonville, Fla., has joined the ward staff also new R. N.'s on the staff are Betty Wynn, a recent graduate of Chowan College, and Patricia Parker, formerly of Washington, D. C. . . . Mary Sparks and Pat Dennis have resigned. Both are moving to Maryland Evelyn Morgan, R. N., head nurse on Minot, is transferring to and will head the new cancer research unit Mrs. Graham, maid, has transferred from Long to Minot

Ob-Gyn

Dr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson announce the birth of a daughter on June 23 Dr. and Mrs. Richard Bechtel are the parents of a son born July 15 Miss Marty Theiling has joined the staff as a secretary for the Ob-Gyn residents Dr. Keith Deubler joined the department staff July 1 to begin a two-year postdoctoral fellowship in the division of gynecologic endocrinology. Dr. Deubler, his wife and four children come to Duke from Denver, Colo. . . . new residents in the department beginning July 1 are Drs. Tom Henley, John Weed, Dan Riddick, Lyn Borchert, and Charles Peery

Ophthalmology

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Herring announce the birth of a daughter, Deborah Cozart, on Aug. 6 Dr. Uri Yinon of Israel will be working with Dr. Myron Wolbarsht as an associate in research in ophthalmology

Orthopaedic Surgery

Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Venters are the parents of a daughter born in June. Dr. Venters is a member of the orthopaedic house staff

Outpatient Department

Mrs. Pat Weed, R. N., has joined the staff as a relief nurse Miss Diana Hemsley, R. N., formerly with the staff in the emergency room, has resigned to return to Ohio to be married Mrs. Charlotte Martin, R. N., also formerly on the ER staff, resigned to return to New York Miss Linda Thompson, a summer employe in the ER, resigned to enter nursing school Pat Messick, a PCA in the ER, and Milton Glenn, a porter there, have resigned to enter college Dick Eldredge and Jack Clayton have returned to school and are now working part time as porters in the ER Paul Jakokes is a new part-time employe in the ER Mrs. Mary McCole, assistant director of nursing, and Mrs. Verna Sticht, acting director of nursing, have returned from a visit to Duke's newly acquired hospital in Sea Level, N. C.

Pathology

Marjorie Dean has begun work on the autopsy service of the department Mrs. Susan Wooley is a new EM technician new employe in histology is Mrs. Beverly Flannery, a technician trainee

Patient Care Education

Ruth Jakokes, a graduate of the Duke School of Nursing, was working with the department this summer Martha Shawger, formerly an R. N. on Nott ward, taught ward management to the recently graduated class of advanced L. P. N.'s. She is also working with the new hospital administrative residents Janet Askew of the staff has taken a leave of absence until November to complete her master's degree thesis

Physical Therapy

Members of the physical therapy class scheduled to graduate in December have begun their practical rotations in rehabilitation centers, pediatric hospitals, public health departments and general hospitals as part of the requirements for certification in physical therapy. The students are scattered in health care facilities from Pennsylvania to Georgia to gain their clinical experience.

Plastic Surgery

Miss Shirley Gardner is the new secretary to Dr. L. K. Thompson, 111

Psychiatry

Mrs. Diane Evans is the new payroll clerk for the department. She replaces Mrs. Onie Wells who accepted a position as administrative assistant in the sociology department Mrs. Carol Farrell is a new secretary in the psychiatric outpatient clinic Dr. Louis Cancellaro completed his residency July 1 and was appointed director of training and education at the U. S. Public Health Service, National Institute of Mental Health Research Center, Lexington, Ky.

Public Relations Office

Vance Booth Whitfield has joined the PR staff as assistant director Miss Barbara Ray is the new secretary in PR

Recovery Room

Catherine Zarzecki, R. N., has joined the ward staff

Reed ward

New L. P. N. on the ward is Suzanne Marchand

School of Medicine

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cecil are the parents of a son, Jeffrey Curtis, born on July 4. Mrs. Cecil is a secretary in the Medical School Admissions Office new face in the admissions office is secretary Gail Stephens

Speech Pathology

Miss Sandi Harrell, an X-ray technician in medical speech pathology, was married to Richard Prentice on Aug. 23 Mrs. Betty Crosby is a new secretary in the division Mrs. Rozalyn Bradley has joined the staff as a speech pathologist Mrs. Kathy Agar has returned to her teaching position in Chapel Hill after a summer "vacation" working in medical speech pathology

Strudwick ward

Linda Hodgson is a new R. N. on the ward

(continued on page nineteen)