

PROFESSIONAL NEWS

Vice President

Ray E. Brown, former director of the Graduate Program in Hospital Administration at Duke, has been appointed executive vice president of Northwestern University Medical Center in Chicago effective January 1.

He is a past president of both the American College of Hospital Administrators and the American Hospital Association.

Lectures

Dr. Galen W. Quinn, professor of orthodontics, presented lectures on "Occlusion Guidance and Treatment Procedures" at a meeting of the Tennessee State Dental Association meeting September 18-19.

On Council

Dr. William W. Shingleton, professor and chief of general surgery, has been appointed to a four-year term on the National Advisory Cancer Council of the National Institutes of Health.

In England

Dr. John C. Evans, professor of radiology, attended a symposium on the use of cyclotrons in medicine in London. He also attended the International Conference on the use of cyclotron in chemistry, metallurgy and biology in Oxford.

During his 10-day stay in September, he visited the Hammersmith Hospital in London and the Royal Marsden Hospital and Addenbrooke Hospital in Cambridge.

Attend Meeting

Mr. Sam Agnello and Mr. Wayne Williams of the Division of Audiovisual Education, attended the Association of Medical Illustrators meeting held in Washington, D. C., September 14-17. Mr. Agnello chaired an afternoon session devoted to illustration and design in television programming.

At Seminar

Mrs. Jane Bennett, Miss Ann Coleman, and Miss Rande Waring attended a recovery room seminar, sponsored by nursing service and anesthesia, October 31 in Orlando, Fla.

Instructor, Examiner

Dr. Joseph A. C. Wadsworth, professor and chairman of the Department of Ophthalmology, will be an instructor in a course on retinal detachment at the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology.

Dr. Wadsworth will also serve as an examiner for the oral examinations of the American Board of Ophthalmology next month.

Attends Workshop

Mary E. McColm, director of outpatient department nursing, attended the workshop of the American Public Health Association in Asheville September 15-19.

At Meetings

Patricia Barber, unit dietitian, attended a N. C. Dietetic Association Workshop at N. C. State University in Raleigh July 10-11. She also attended the Fifth International Congress of Dietetics and the people on the move

52nd annual meeting of the American Dietetic Association in Washington, D. C., September 10-11.

Exhibit Cited

An exhibit displayed by Dr. William K. Zung, assistant professor of psychiatry, at the American Academy of General Practice meeting was cited for excellence. Dr. Zung's exhibit was titled "The Pharmacology of Disordered Sleep: A Laboratory Approach."

Attends Meeting

Dr. John P. Tindall, assistant professor of dermatology, will attend the Southern Medical Association meeting in Atlanta November 10-13.

At Session

Miss Judith Cantey attended the North Carolina Public Health Association meeting in Asheville September 17-19. She is secretary of the physical therapy section.

Gets Grant

Dr. John F. Griffith, assistant professor of pediatrics and neurology, has been awarded a $27,247 grant by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society to support his study of slow viruses and how they work.

The grant is effective for 18 months.

Displays Paintings

Nadine Vartanian, wife of Dr. Vartan Vartanian in the Department of Anesthesiology, will display her watercolor paintings at the Morehead Gallery in the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill during the month of November.

The show, the fifth for the artist, includes paintings of the campus and of North Carolina.

CORRECTION

Georgia Jones, pictured in the September issue of Intercom, was incorrectly identified as an L. P. N. She is actually an R. N. and is head of the nursing department of Durham Technical Institute. Intercom regrets the error.

Intercom
duke university medical center

INTERCOM is published monthly for Duke University Medical Center faculty, staff, employees, students and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office, Joe Sigler, director, and Vance Whitfield, assistant director.

MRS. SUE CHILDS
PR Assistant and Intercom Editor

MISS BARBARA RAY
Public Relations Secretary

Editorial Committee: Sam A. Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; James L. Bennett, administrative assistant to the vice-president for health affairs; Mrs. Brainerd Currie, publicity chairman of the Duke Hospital Auxiliary; Cecil McClees, assistant director of personnel at the medical center, and Miss Julia Taylor, R. N., acting supervisor, Nott, Strudwick and Holmes wards.