

PROFESSIONAL NEWS

New Chairman

Dr. Morton D. Bogdonoff, professor of medicine and assistant director for graduate medical education at the Medical Center, will assume a position as professor and head of the Department of Medicine at the University of Illinois College of Medicine January 1, 1970.

He earned his M. D. degree from Cornell University Medical College in 1948. He became an associate professor at Duke in 1959 and a professor in 1962.

New President

Dr. J. Leonard Goldner, chief of the division of orthopaedic surgery, took office as president of the Southern Medical Association November 12 at the organization's annual meeting in Atlanta.

A member of the association since 1951, Dr. Goldner has held several offices including the chairmanship of the orthopaedic and traumatic surgery section and the first vice presidency.

Intercom
Duke university medical center

INTERCOM is published monthly for Duke University Medical Center faculty, staff, employees, students, and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office, Joe Sigler, director.

MRS. SUE CHILDS
PR Assistant and Intercom Editor

MISS BARBARA RAY
Public Relations Secretary

Editorial Committee: Sam A. Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; James L. Bennett, administrative assistant to the vice-president for health affairs; Mrs. Brainerd Currie, publicity chairman for the Duke Hospital Auxiliary; Cecil McClees, assistant director of the Medical Center Personnel Office, S. Douglas Smith, assistant director of the hospital, and Julia Taylor, R. N., acting supervisor, Nott, Strudwick, and Holmes wards.

people on the move

Elected Fellow

Dr. Harold R. Silberman, associate professor of medicine, has been named a fellow in the American College of Physicians.

He received the honor October 8.

Wins Essay Award

Peter T. Scardino, third-year medical student, received a $50 prize from the Southern Medical Association for winning second place in the association's Junior Medical Students Essay Contest.

His paper was titled "Bacterial Diarrhea in Eastern Nicaragua."

Give Papers

Dr. William Johnston, Dr. Edward Bossen, and Miss Joseph Amatulli, all of the Department of Pathology, presented scientific papers at the American Society of Cytology meetings in Chicago November 5-11.

Miss Amatulli won the annual award for the best presentation of a scientific paper by a cytotechnologist. She was also elected to the Cytotechnology Advisory Committee.

Miss Amatulli and Dr. Johnston served as moderators for a session on the teaching of cytotechnology.

N. C. President

Dr. Richard Lester, chairman of the Department of Radiology, began a one-year term as president of the North Carolina Chapter of the American College of Radiology in mid-November.

He took office at the group's annual meeting in Mid Pines.

At Meeting

Dr. Barry Ramo of the Cardiac Care Unit attended the annual meeting of the American Heart Association recently in Dallas, Tex.

At Congress

Several Medical Center dietitians attended the International Congress of Dietetics in Washington, D. C., the week of September 7. The annual American Dietetic Association meeting was held at the same time in Washington.

Speaker

Mr. Warren Bird, associate director of the Medical Center Library, was guest speaker at the breakfast meeting of the Junior Members of the Roundtable of the North Carolina Library Association at their annual meeting in Charlotte. He spoke on "Implications of Automation for Libraries."

At Meetings

Rebecca Owins, R. N., supervisor of operating room nursing, attended a supervision and management seminar October 27-30 in Chicago.

Miss Owins along with Mrs. Betty Tyman, R. N., assistant supervisor of operating room nursing, attended the regional Davis and Geck panel meeting October 30-31 in Atlanta.

Gives Programs

Dr. Galen W. Quinn, professor of orthodontics, presented a program on "Maxillary Expansion" at the Southern Society of Orthodontists in Memphis, Tenn., October 19-22.

Dr. Quinn also presented a table clinic on "Temporomandibular Joint Problems" at the Third District Dental Society meeting in High Point November 1-3.

At Institutes

Mr. Robert Federchuck, clinical director of physical therapy, attended an institute in developing rehabilitation services in hospitals and related institutions sponsored by the American Hospital Association in Chicago October 15-17.

He also attended an institute on administration, supervision, and consultation sponsored by the American Physical Therapy Association the week of October 26 at the Oklahoma Center for Continuing Education in Norman, Okla.

At Milwaukee

Dr. Ewald W. Busse, professor and chairman of the Department of Psychiatry, was the Kradwell Visitor at the Milwaukee Psychiatric Hospital in cooperation with the Marquette School of Medicine September 18-20.

(continued on page ten)