

ADDITION TO THE CAFETERIA—A trophy case, to be used for prizes won by all Duke sports teams, had its first customers in April when members of the Duke Tech softball team put their hard-earned trophies in the cabinet. The Duke Techs won the Bull City league championship last fall. Present for the ceremony was Robert Tuthill, far left, director of Medical Center personnel. (photo by Dave Hooks)

INTERCOMMENTS

(continued from page twelve)

ward also new on Nott are Rick Hobbs and Nom Dewing Mrs. Betty Egglestone, R.N., is now at work on the ward

Nursing Service

Miss Rosie Tindall, R.N., on Halsted, was married in April Miss Carolyn Jean Rogers, L.P.N. on Halsted, was married April 18 to Mr. William Spencer Holden Miss Willie Mae Riley is a new L.P.N. on Reed Miss Anne Frye is back to work on Halsted after a long illness Mrs. Julia Freeland, A.L.P.N., transferred to McDowell Mrs. Roxanna Daye and Mrs. Alma Riley, both A.L.P.N.'s, transferred to Cushing

Operating Room

Carolyn Smith is a new OR technician from Chapel Hill Linda Guinn is a new OR technician from Atlanta

Outpatient Department Nursing

Joseph Thorpe is a new PCA in the Emergency Room Dorothy Hill is now a PCA in the Employe Health Office Beverly Ethridge, R.N., transferred to the ENT clinic Charles Jay, PCA in the Emergency Room, has resigned Myra Fogleman transferred to OPD Nursing as a float R.N. Mrs. Emily Steiner has been promoted to assistant head nurse in the Ob-Gyn clinic graduating from the recent "Art of Public Relations" class were Edith Brown, Elizabeth Smith, Carol Jacobs, Garnetta Mayes, Bertha Villines and Barbara Urban

Personnel

Linda Curtis, payroll clerk in personnel, and her husband Steve announce the birth of a daughter, Cheryl Rene, on March 23 Eleanor Johnson, formerly of dietetics, has transferred to personnel as an office clerk

Pharmacy

William R. Engen is a new pharmacist Philip M. Pendergraph is a new technician trainee Herman West is now working as a pharmacy porter Eric Jackson is now a part-time student intern Doris Wilson has been promoted from pharmacy helper to medical technician in the new IV Admixture Program

Physical Therapy

The physical therapy staff held a farewell party for Mrs. Katherine (Kitty) Randolph April 7. Mrs. Randolph resigned to await the birth of a child in May April 10 was the date of another farewell party, this one for Mrs. Swanee Austin who found commuting from Raleigh a bit tiring

Rankin Ward

Patricia Potter will be married May 23 to Mr. John Andrews Miss Carol Jones has resigned to accept a position at North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill Elizabeth Davis has been promoted to PCA III the entire staff is pleased to have Mrs. Fellice Revels back as an A.L.P.N.

Sims Ward

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Peery announce the birth of a son, Charles Andrew, on April 10 Mrs. LaVonda Bobbitt is a new L.P.N. from the Watts School of Practical Nursing

Surgical P.D.C.

The new compensation, liability, and insurance offices have been completed and are now located on the main hallway of the hospital across from the S.P.D.C. Cashiers Office Orderly Robert Jackson has accepted a position with the U.S. Post Office