Twenty-three students are working as ward clerks this summer as an initiation into Duke's two-year Graduate Program in Hospital Administration.

Following a week of orientation, the hospital administration students began their ward clerk duties Monday.

The purpose of the clerkship is to acquaint the students with daily operations in a general hospital. The ward clerk's desk also provides a good position from which to view the interrelationships which exist among the various segments of the Hospital. Ned Kearns, unit administrator on the general surgical unit, is coordinating the two-month summer program.

New ZIP in Your Life

There'll be a new ZIP in your life starting July 1.

Beginning then, the Medical Center's ZIP code for mail will be 27710, and should be used by anyone who receives his mail through the Medical Center mailroom.

The rest of the University West Campus, including Hanes House and the Graduate Center, will continue to use 27706, and the East Campus ZIP will continue to be 27708.

The separate ZIP code for the Medical Center is expected to greatly facilitate the handling of mail and eliminate slow-downs in delivery resulting from misdirection of mail.
