

Easter Comes to Pediatric Patients

THIS IS AN EGG—And finding eggs was the order of the day at the pediatric Easter party Mar. 31. (photo by Henny van Dijk)

DECISION—It was a bit difficult for this fellow to decide whether or not he wanted to join the Easter egg hunt. With him is Sally Francis, Duke's pediatric recreation therapist. (photo by Henny van Dijk)

COUNTING—Keeping track of her collection was easy for this young lady. The pretty baskets used at the party were made by patients on Duke's psychiatry wards. (photo by Henny van Dijk)

ALL IN ONE BASKET—This little guy was trying to make sure he didn't lose any of the eggs he'd so carefully collected. (photo by Henny van Dijk)
