Sixty-nine student nurses representing 17 different colleges and universities are spending their summer at the Medical Center under Duke's Professional Nurse Assistant Program.

In its third year, the program offers students the opportunity to gain valuable practical experience while earning money. It also shows the prospective graduate the nursing opportunities available at Duke Hospital.

The students are all rising seniors in bachelor degree programs. Forty of them are from Duke.

One group of nurses arrived May 16 for the 10-week summer employment program. The second group will begin June 5. Following a two-week orientation period, the students will work under the direction of the nursing staff to apply current knowledge and skills in patient care and to develop new skills.

The student nurses and the patient care areas to which they are assigned are listed below. Unless otherwise specified, the girls are Duke students.

Dr. D. Hart Inducted Into Hopkins Society

Dr. J. Deryl Hart was inducted into the Society of Scholars at The Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore on May 26. Membership is bestowed upon former postdoctoral fellows at Johns Hopkins who have gained marked distinction in their fields of academic or professional interest.

Dr. Hart, a graduate of Emory University, received his M.D. degree from Johns Hopkins, where he also served his internship and did postdoctoral study in surgery and pathology. After serving on the Hopkins faculty until 1930, he became professor of surgery and chairman of the Department of Surgery at Duke.

From 1961 to 1963 he served as president of the University and is now President Emeritus.
