

3 Doctors Promoted 10 New Appointments Announced

Three faculty members have been promoted to associate professor, University Provost Dr. Frederick N. Cleaveland announced recently.

They are Dr. G. Douglas Blenkarn, in the Department of Anesthesiology, Dr. George W. Brumley Jr. in the Department of Pediatrics and Dr. Rebecca H. Buckley also in Pediatrics.

Dr. G. Douglas Blenkarn received his M.D. in 1958 from the University of Toronto. He served his internship and residency at Toronto General Hospital and came to Duke in 1971 as assistant professor of physiology and pharmacology and assistant professor of anesthesiology.

Dr. George W. Brumley of Lake City, Fla., received his M.D. from Duke University School of Medicine in 1960. He joined the Duke faculty in 1966 as research associate in pediatrics.

Dr. Brumley served his clerkship in London at the Hospital for Nervous Diseases and Blindness and his residency at the Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston, Mass.

Dr. Rebecca H. Buckley, a 1954 graduate of Duke University, received her M.D. from the University of North Carolina School of Medicine. She served her internship and residency at Duke and became an instructor in pediatrics in 1961.

Ten new assistant professors have been appointed the Medical Center. Announcement of the faculty appointments came from University Provost Frederic N. Cleaveland.

Dr. Charles A. Blake has been appointed assistant professor of anatomy. He received an A.B. in biology from Brown University, a M.S. in physiology from the University of Houston, and a Ph.D. in anatomy from U.C.L.A.

Dr. Ronald Yan-li Chuang has been named assistant professor of experimental medicine and assistant professor of pharmacology. He was awarded a B.S. degree from the National Taiwan University in Taipei, Taiwan, and a M.S. and Ph.D. from the University of California at Davis.

Dr. John A. Jarrell Jr. was named assistant professor of anesthesiology. He received his A.B. in philosophy and his M.D. from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

Also named to an assistant professorship in anesthesiology was Dr. Terrence J. Gilbert. A native of Australia, Dr. Gilbert received his M.B. and B.S. degrees from the University of Sydney.

Dr. Richard S. Kramer has been appointed assistant professor of neurosurgery. He received a B.A. degree and a M.D. degree from Duke and is presently a candidate for a Ph.D. in physiology.

Named assistant professor in the Departments of Psychiatry and Medicine was Dr. Redford B. Williams. Dr. Williams earned an A.B. from Harvard and a M.D. at Yale.

Dr. Dolph O. Adams has been named assistant professor of anatomy. Dr. Adams was awarded his A.B. degree from Duke, a M.S. and M.D. from the Medical College of Georgia, and a Ph.D. in pathology, from the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Robert M. Bell has been appointed assistant professor of biochemistry. He holds a B.S. degree from the University of Nebraska and Ph.D. in biochemistry from the University of California at Berkeley.

Named assistant professor of orthodontics in the Department of Surgery was Dr. Kenneth R. Diehl. Dr. Diehl received an A.B. from Cornell University and a D.M.D. from Harvard.

Dr. Joseph Lawrence Wagner has been named assistant professor of microbiology and immunology and director of the Division of Laboratory Animal Resources. He attended Ohio State University as an undergraduate and was awarded a D.V.M. degree from the College of Veterinary Medicine of Ohio State.

It takes almost one full eight-hour workday to maintain the medical records for just one hospital bed for one month.

INTERCOM is published weekly for Duke University Medical Center employes, faculty, staff, students, and friends by the Medical Center Public Relations Office. Joe H. Sigler, director, and Vance B. Whitfield, assistant director.

Editor
DAVID WILLIAMSON

Assistant Editor
MRS. DALE MOSES

Public Relations Advisory Committee: Sam A. Agnello, director of the division of audiovisual education; James L. Bennett, Jr., executive assistant to the vice president for health affairs; C. C. Cobb, employe relations assistant in the Medical Center Personnel Office; Kenneth M. Holt, assistant director of the Hospital; and Julia Taylor, RN, head nurse on Strudwick Ward.

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS MEETING—Herb Aikens, new director of employe relations, met recently with Hospital Director Dr. Stuart Sessoms to discuss the employe relations program. Mr. Aikens comes to Duke from the National Urban League where he was the director of government relations in Washington. Prior to his service in the National Urban League, he was a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army and spent several years working in the areas of personnel, employe and race relations, and equal opportunity. Mr. Aikens received a B.S. degree in business administration and a M.A. in personnel administration from George Washington University. (photo by Bill Boyarsky)