THE 'DOCTOR' LOOKS FAMILIAR—That's "Dr." Terry Sanford in the white coat, receiving a doctor's accouterments from Dr. William G. Anlyan, vice president for health affairs. The event was President Sanford's induction as an Honorary Alumnus of the School of Medicine during Medical Alumni Weekend. Dr. Anlyan rounded out the awards ceremony by presenting the honorary physician with a white coat, name tag and black bag. (Photo by Thad Sparks)

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI—Receiving Distinguished Alumni awards during Medical Alumni Weekend were, left to right: Dr. Stuart O. Bondurant Jr., executive vice president and dean of the Albany Medical College; Dr. Beverly C. Morgan, chairman of pediatrics at the University of Washington; Dr. Kenneth D. Weeks, a Rocky Mount physician; Dr. W. Delano Meriwether, a White House fellow serving as special assistant to the secretary of HEW; and Dr. Lewis W. Wannamaker, professor of pediatrics and microbiology at the University of Minnesota. (Photo by Thad Sparks)

A PULL OF THE CURTAIN—While her husband (center) and Dr. William G. Anlyan look on, Mrs. Barnes Woodhall draws back the curtain to display the bronze plaque which will be mounted on the Barnes Woodhall Building, the main entrance building to the medical center. Dedication of the building to Woodhall, James B. Duke professor emeritus of neurosurgery and former chancellor pro tem of the university, was part of Medical Alumni Weekend. (Photo by Jim Wallace)
