Southeastern's RAMS brought home a 1-1 record from the CMA Invitational Tournament at Maxton on January 20 - 21.

The RAMS won the consolation game on Saturday, January 21, by defeating Carolina Military Academy, 65 - 61. On the first night of play, the RAMS were defeated by Sandhills College, 80 - 65.

Two RAM players were named to the All-Tournament Team, Robert Hurley (first team) and Larry Dailey (second team).

Southeastern received its first trophy in its basketball history by winning the consolation game.

According to Coach Joe Nance, "Southeastern played a very good first half and had a two point lead at half time, but poor shooting (35%) and bad ball handling led to a downfall in the second half. Glenn Allen was lost by injury in the first half and this hurt our rebounding."

Sandhills went on to win the tournament by defeating Methodist College Frosh, 96 - 77.

trailed in the second half until about two minutes were left in the game.

"The Rams played a good game despite injuries to three starters. We shot a lot better (43%) and made far fewer mistakes than on the previous night. It was a real team effort in that we had four boys on double figures," said Coach Nance.

"Robert Hurley had two real good nights, probably his best of the season. He was a real leader both nights in shooting, defense, and ball handling. Jim Burris also looked real good both nights on defense. Jim Foyles was a good playmaker and Larry Dailey's shooting was off but he had two exceptional nights on the boards," added Coach Nance.

Scoring for the Rams in the Sandhills game were Burris (15), Dailey (12), Hurley (24), Foyles (6), Hargrove (8), and Mills (2).

In the CMA game it was Burris (15), Hurley (19), Dailey (14), Hargrove (12), and Foyles (5).

Beauties Boost The Team

The cheerleaders of SCC want to thank the students attending the basketball games for their support. However, the students attending are only a small part of the entire student body, so let's everyone do their part in rousing the team and the school's spirit and let's cheer the Rams on to victory.

The cheering squad is made up of six loud-mouthed members. Linda Garris alias Sam, and Sherry (Streach) Potter are the sophomores and in the College Parallel program.

Linda Garris is from Lake View, S. C. She is on the newspaper staff, and treasurer of the Student Government, and Fine Arts Committee.

Sherry Potter is from Gulf, N. C. and has been chairman of many of the dance committees.

The remaining cheerleaders are freshmen and in the College Parallel program and Business Administration.

Janice Little of Lake Waccamaw, is the chief of the squad and is a reporter on the newspaper staff.

Vickie Barnes, a freshman is from Shallotte, N. C. Vickie was responsible for the fabulous Christmas Ball. She is also a member of the newspaper staff, and the Fine Arts Committee.

Jenny Singletary is from Clarkton, N. C. where she was a former cheerleader in high school.

Polly Arena's home is in Durham, N. C., where she was also a high school cheerleader.

The cheerleaders plan to have a bonfire before the last home game and also a parents night.

"Please yell when you come to the games and let the Rams know that you're behind them all the way," said all the cheerleaders.

It's their charming voices that helps spur our team on to victory.

Have You Heard?

For those of you who don't know, SCC has a basketball team. As a matter of fact, they have a good basketball team. They are called the Rams. And they also play basketball. They have a coach named Mr. Nance. They also have a manager named Josh. The team members are: Jim Foyles, Royce Odom, Glenn Allen, Stewart Smith, Phil Mills, Eddie Gore, Robert Hurley, Franklin Hargrove, Jimmy Burris, and Larry Dailey. These boys practice several times a week and usually have a game twice a week. When they have a game, they play very hard. The boys have a lot of spirit.

BUT!! What about you, the students? Where is your school spirit? Did you leave it at your high school or at your girl friend's house? It is very evident that you don't use it to back the Rams. Sure the team has a 2-5 record, but they did it on their own, not with your support. Maybe if you could spare the time to support the boys they might win a few more games for YOU! The few, the very few students that have attended the games know that our team is great. These are the ones who don't laugh when they see a poster announcing that the Rams have another game. The choice is yours, be proud of your college and your team and support both, or stay in your dark corner and do nothing.

JOSH PLAYS BALL

Josh Brisson, manager of the Rams basketball team, had his great chance when part of the team was late in arriving in the post Christmas vacation game with Sandhills. However he was not successful, so back to being manager for Josh.

Intramural table tennis began this quarter and was very successful. This is the best turn out for an intramural yet.
