Press Conference Held For SGA Candidates

Members of the Rams' Horn staff question the candidates. THE CANDIDATES, looking very pensive, await the next question! WHAT will they ask us NEXT? Roy Herring answers--a question put to him as the other candidates look on.

Literary Magazine Planned

For the purpose of providing a much needed creative outlet at Southeastern, a "literary review" has been tentatively proposed.

The magazine will embody all the arts, literature (prose and poetry), art, music, and essays--consisting of student and faculty works in these areas.

President Comer, as well as other members of the faculty, has reacted favorably to the idea.

According to Bill Love and Wayne Bellamy, co-editors, J. Erwin, English instructor, has agreed to sponsor the review.

A publication date has not been set, but the general consensus is that it will be during the Spring Quarter.

Anyone interested in working with the magazine should contact Mr. Love, Mr. Bellamy, or Mr. Erwin.

Hud To Be Next Film

Paul Newman is the hard-driving, hard-drinking, woman-chasing Hud whose life is a revolt against the principles of his father, a man of strong character and gentleness. Young Lon, Hud's nephew, is torn between love for both of them. Patricia Neal is the worldly-wise housekeeper, old enough to be disillusioned but young enough to be desirable. All of them are caught up in the surging bitterness of a family conflict. How each solves his own problem is the basis for the story. Melvyn Douglas play the father and Brandon de Wilde is Hud's nephew Lon. This film will be shown on Nov. 13 in Room 210.

Elections Set For Monday Candidates Present Views

Students will vote Monday, October 30, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. in the lobby of the main building to select a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, six freshmen senators, and six sophomore senators. These will be selected from a field of twenty-seven candidates.

Roy Herring, chairman of elections, stated that "a voting machine will be used."

Each candidate for an SGA office was given an opportunity to express his views and platform at a press conference held by The Ram's Horn October 17. The following candidates presented these views on the issues confronting the SGA.

President -- Larry (Peanut) Rooks: "I am enthusiastic about the unification of students with all programs being on one campus and the advantages this will afford. There are some amendments to the constitution which should be made. The possibility of revising the number of absences allowed for a course should be investigated."

Vice-President--Roy Herring: "The hold back of sophomore students filing for candidates was from experiences with last year. To get more participation from all students we must offer what is appealing to them." Asked about having an honor code for SCC--"I definitely approve of having an honor code."

Secretary--Ann Pigott: "Students have the responsibility of deciding for themselves what type of clothing to wear in college and I can't see where it is the responsibility of the SGA to decide the dress of the students." Also commenting about the expansion of officer responsibility, "The responsibility of an officer is to be a leader and to get others involved."

Secretary -- Kay High: "The following are my qualifications for this office; I have been secretary in many organizations both in high school and the church. I have typing and shorthand experience, and I am interested in working with the SGA."

Treasurer--Linda Page: "The budget for the '67-'68 college year was based on the financial need of each club or organization. Money set aside for this is from the student activity fee paid at the beginning of each quarter by all full-time students. How this money is spent--the SGA decides."

Senatorial candidates were asked what they wish to see done if they were elected. Following are their comments.

Barbara Cartrette: "I wish to see funds allocated for having the library open on Saturday and Sunday. Part-time help could be from the students."

Alan Watkins: "Student's activity fee should be raised to provide for a yearbook . . . a big part of college is having an annual."

Louise Yoder: "Let the students know what the SGA is doing and find out what the students want, to better voice their opinions."

Alice Davis: "I would like to encourage student activities with the possibility of the different departments sponsoring new activities."

Linda Waters: "I would like to see more school spirit by beginning pep rallies to give the team more support."

James Crabtree: "Appoint students to aid in keeping the lounge area cleaner and to help with the parking difficulties."

Charles Smith: "Instead of more cultural concerts, I would like to see SCC present a pop concert at least once a year."

Larry Watson: "To gain the support of the students and to have an atmosphere of being a college campus, I would like to have a symbol for the college along with the idea of other colleges erected toward laying a foundation for this new campus."

Jerry King: "Changing the students' lounge area to another location is essential. This at present isn't large enough for the minority of the students. It is also in terrible condition."

Elected officers and senators will make up the governing body of the SGA. The purpose of the SGA is to provide a means for responsible and effective student government with student participation, to pursue and participate in decisions affecting students, to take action in the best interest of the student body and college community, to provide a voice through which student opinion may be expressed, to assume an active interest in maintenance of discipline within the college, and to work with the faculty and administration.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty, Staff, and Student Body of SCC, the newspaper staff commends the Chadbourn Merchants' Association for the welcome extended September 17 at the "College Social."
