Rams Heard

Coach Chuck Hybl sees a definite improvement in this year's soccer team as in comparison with last year's.

As far as areas of improvement are concerned it is too early in the season to designate exactly. However Coach Hybl sees more spirit and higher moral this year. He stated, "Last year was spent converting the boys from football to soccer. This year we have more guys with experience."

Coach Hybl feels that he has learned much since last year and is getting more excited about soccer as he learns more day by day.

There was a workshop conducted prior to registration this year and not many boys were able to participate but it was still very helpful.

Coach Hybl and the soccer team think a large turnout for the home games will be a big factor this year. Students! Support S.C.C. soccer!

SCC Slashes Hanover 2 To 1

It was the thrill of victory for the S.C.C. soccer team on September 14, as they journeyed to New Hanover High School for a scrimmage.

The game took place on Wilmington College's field at 10 a.m. Southeastern "drew first blood" as Red Ward scored in the first period of play on a sliding kick under the oppositions goalie. The other score came in the final 22 minutes as Harry Foley passed Nance, and Henry Edmunds, as to Red Ward, Ward relaying to Larry Nance who boomed in. Overall, Southeastern controlled the ball most of the game.

New Hanover's score came on a 20 yard kick by Bernie Lewis. The defensive team was a controlling factor in the game and consisted of fullbacks; George Zezefellis, Myles Hair, John Howarth, Robert Fuller, and halfbacks; Stu Smith, Mickey Reynolds, and Rudy Perkins.

Offensive ball control found Randy Hester, Foley, Ward,

Campbell Kills SCC 17 To 0

Southeastern arrived at Campbell around 3:15 on Tuesday, September 17. Coaches announced co-captains for the soccer team. They were center forward Harry Foley and center halfback Stu Smith.

The Rams were fired up as they made warm-up preparations for the game, the fire seemed impossible to burn as Campbell scored goal after goal and the Rams failed to penetrate their end of the field.

Campbell, one of the top ranked teams in North Carolina, are seeking a championship birth this fall. If they keep playing like they did Tuesday, their dream will become a reality.

Wyche Helpful Addition To SCC For Basketball

Southeastern has a 6' 9", 235 pound transfer from East Carolina University this year on the basketball squad. Tyrone Wyche is from Washington, D.C. and attended James S. Russell High School in Lawrenceville Virginia. While enrolled there, he maintained a 19 point per game average for four years.

As a freshman at E.C.U., he had a 15 point average, hauled down 14 rebounds per game, and was voted "Most Valuable Freshman." He also set a free throw record scoring 24 in one game.

Tyrone's record high for one high school game was 39 points. His high at E.C.U. was 31 including 24 scored against Duke.

Basketball has been his favorite sport all his life and he's looking forward to a good season here at Southeastern.

Drama Club

On September 10, at 11:30 all students interested in joining the drama club met with Mr. Charles Hybl in room 210.

Several advisers were chosen at this meeting to aid the club in presenting their first play.

Again, on Tuesday September 17, the drama club met for the purpose of talking with Mrs. Alvetta Viets, director of the play. Mrs. Viets informed the club that two plays would be given on four nights instead of three.

Try-outs for Bus Stop, the first play were held on September 17, at 7:30. Persons trying out for the play were not only from the drama club but also from some of the neighboring towns.

Civitan Officers

One of the few service clubs on campus, The Civitan Club, met on September 16 to elect officers. Those elected were: president; George Zezefellis, vice president; Red Ward, treasurer; David Elliot, chaplain; John Howarth, Sergeant at Arms; Steward Smith.

Nursing Program Reaches 57 Girls

The Degree Nursing program with 25 freshmen, 17 sophomores and the Practical Nurses with 15 students, is now in full swing.

Freshmen students in the Degree Program are already spending two mornings each week at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton.

"The student nurse learns much better in this setting than the artificial laboratory setting of a classroom. In the classroom the student nurse is taught basic knowledge and skills. These are sharpened and improved by early exposure to actual patients in a hospital environment," said Mrs. Pauline Ashley, Director of Nursing.

Mrs. Ashley spoke of some of the changes taking place in nursing and nursing education. She pointed out that one of the trends in nursing education today is to place it within the frame-work of general education. This is a result of the heavy demands on hospitals and hospital staffs who no longer have the time and money to assume the function of having nursing education in addition to the primary function of patient care.

Nursing relies on technological advances and incorporates many of these in an effort to give better training to the student with the ultimate view that this will result in better patient care. Nursing educators feel that by eliminating repetitious tasks and concentrating on basic skills and knowledge, the time of training can be shortened.

The local Student Nurses Association has elected officers: Sandra Causey; president, Eunice Inman; vice-president, Zola McDaniels; secretary, Judy Clark; treasurer, Martha Webster; reporter, and Reba Buffkin as Representative to the District Association.

Mrs. Ashley said that she was pleased with last year's attendance at the district meeting which was held at Wrightsville Beach. She hopes the local group will be able to send a delegate to the National Convention this year.

When asked about new changes planned or improvements in the Nursing programs, Mrs. Ashley expressed a desire for more applicants. She feels that many people do not understand that the Nursing Programs offered at S.C.C. are designed to prepare a student for a career either as a Registered Nurse or a Practical Nurse and is a complete course. She thinks once the public understands this she will have many more girls applying for admission.
