Humanities Course Offered

Winter and spring Quarters field, will try to help students to will bring a new dimension to a better understanding and the required Sophomore appreciation of the world, and Humanities course. With a grant from an agency of the Federal government, the College will of Classical Literature, is to be range of Contemporary thought attention will be given to present and activity covered by lecturers and future ideas, concepts, and whose interests include writing, art, music, history, sociology, poetry, religion, law and other self-worth in a de-personalized academic disciplines. These people, representing varied points of view and each Hodgens explained. "In the

of themselves.

Humanities, in the past a study sponsor guest speakers regularly. up-dated. Co-ordinator Robert There will be a very broad Hodgens says that more cultural achievements.

"How to maintain a sense of matrix, this will be emphasized in the Winter Quarter," Mr. outstanding in his particular Spring session, emphasis will be on social change and Man's place in a changing world".

During the first half of the series, the following people will be here. Associate Professor of Religion at Old Westbury Campus, State University of New York, Dr. Michael Novak, will be the first lecturer.

From Chapel Hill's Humanities Department comes Dr. Arnold Nash. He will deal with the history of civilization and its relevance to modern man.

Dr. Gyorgy Kepes, from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will lecture on Contemporary Art.

Dr. Lewis Leary, of the English Department at Chapel Hill, will be concerned with the major literature figures, the writers of to-day.

From Appalachian comes the Dean of the Graduate School, Dr. Cratis Williams. A guitar player himself, Dr. Williams will have as his subject, Southern Literature and Folk Music.

Another in the field of music will be Dr. William Mathis, of University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Next is former Ambassador Chuong, Vietnam, lawyer and authority on Vietnamese history.

Electronic music will be the subject of Mr. Vladimar Ussachvesky, of Oklahoma.

Sociology professor Dr. Robert Gutman, of Rutgers, will speak about the problems of the cities now and future.

With so much variety every student should find something of intense interest.

Alumni News

the Southeastern Community attended New Hanover High College Alumni Association last School in Wilmington. year, former President E. Philip Comer told the group that dinner at the Governor's alumni associations are a means of continuing relationships with one's alma mater; a means of North Carolina's 14 continuing relationships with state-supported senior colleges. fellow members, and as a means for recruitment and helping the college through the donation of gifts as well as special projects.

The Alumni Association presented the college with a silver punch bowl and ladle as its first gift. Former President Comer and his family presented a matching bowl and ladle to the college. Mrs. H. Moore, co-ordinator of Alumni Affairs at Southeastern, stated that the bowls are of great service to the college.

Our alumni membership from the 1969 graduating class is 34 members. It is hoped that many others will join this fall.

The results of last year's survey show the present membership of our Alumni Association to be 146 members.

The new editor of the Pine Needle, student newspaper of Pembroke State University, is a senior from Whiteville who has already been a prize winner in the journalistic field.

Miss Avery lived in Wilmington for 14 years until moving to

At the first annual banquet of Whiteville four years ago. Sne

Last week she attended a Mansion in Raleigh for the student newspaper editors of

While at Southeastern Community College, she was named to Phi Theta Kappa Honorary Society. She was also a member there of the Student Activities Board which founded the alumni association at Southeastern Community

Judy Avery, editor for the 1969-70 school year, directed the student newspaper at Southeastern Community College at Whiteville to an All-American honor rating two years ago. The paper was chosen for this award by Associated Collegiate Press at the University of Minnesota School of Miss Avery, who transformed to Pembroke from Southeastern, is the daughter of J. J. Avery of Whiteville and Mrs. Clara E. Avery of Ketchikan, Alaska.

Last year in her junior year a Pembroke State, Miss Avery was a member of the Dean's List, She also served as literary editor for The Indianhead, Pembroke State University Yearbook, doing the bulk of the writing for this publication.

According to Bobby Duncan, head of the maintenance department, Dorothy Evans has been hired to clean the Student lounge, during the most crowded

In the past it has been impossible for the regular janitoral staff to keep the lounge area clean.

Duncan says "the job will never be done, no matter how much help is hired, until there is some help or cooperation from the students," He feels the goal of all students should be "to help make our college a place we can be proud of."

He ask that the students cooperate with the maid when she is cleaning the lounge.

MINGLE!

WHITEVILLE FLORIST

Martin H. Schulken 642-2722

The LITTLE MINT

> Home Of The Big Fellow

COLLEGIATE BEST SELLERS

San Francisco State College

Soul on Ice by Eldridge Cleaver The Autobiography of Malcolm X Black Rage by William H. Grier and Price M. Cobbs Rights in Conflict: Chicago's 7 Brutal Days by Daniel Walker Report of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders The Art of Loving by Erich Fromm Toward A Psychology of Being by Abraham Harold Maslow I Never Promised You A Rose Garden by Hannah Green Siddhartha by Hermann Hesse Summerhill: A Radical Approach to Child Rearing by A. S. Neill

Harvard University

Portnoy's Complaint by Philip Roth Education and Ecstasy by George B. Leonard Soul on Ice by Eldridge Cleaver The I Ching or Book of Changes, translated by Richard Wilhelm The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test by Tom Wolfe The Prophet by Kahlil Gibran The Collected Poems of James Agee His Toy, His Dream, His Rest by John Berryman Listen to the Warm by Rod McKuen The American Challenge by J. J. Servan-Schreiber

Sarah Lawrence College

Soul on Ice by Eldridge Cleaver Cain by James M. Cain In Wilderness (Sierra Club) The Autobiography of Malcolm X Portnoy's Complaint by Philip Roth Siddhartha by Hermann Hesse

East Carolina University

Airport by Arthur Hailey Couples by John Updike The Source by James Michener The Case Against Congress by Drew Pearson and Anderson Instant Replay The Green Bay Diary of Jerry Kramer A Chosen Few by Hari Rhodes Choice Cuts by Baileau and Narcyac Here and Hereafter by Ruth Montgomery

HICKORY HILL BAR - B - Q

Steppenwolf by Herman Hesse

Whiteville, N. C. 642-4922

"DUCK" Day or Night 646-6621

DON - MAR STUDIOS Whiteville, North Carolina 642-7432

AVANT & SHOLAR INC. Chevy Sales & Service Whiteville, North Carolina

TASTEE - FREEZ Whiteville, North Carolin

642-2262 ICE CREAM - PLATES - SANDWICHES

> CAROLINA MOTORS 701 - By Pass Whiteville N. C.

Chrysler Plymouth Dodge

Phone 642-3169

Fraternity Planned

is in the making.

The name of the fraternity will be Alpha Sigma, and will become a social fraternity. It will be affiliated with the Delta Epsilon fraternity in Wilmington.

Fred Dickerson, one of the originators of the idea of a fraternity on our campus, says that the fraternity should be in full swing by the middle of winter quarter. At this time pledges will be made with a rush week following.

Fred stated that he would like to see as much support as body.

Southeastern's first fraternity possible from the student body of Southeastern. At present a constitution has been drawn up, but before any further plans can be made, it must be approved by the Senate, faculty and possibly by the Board of Trustees.

The constitution, which was taken from the Delta Epsilon fraternity at the University of N. C. at Wilmington, has been revised to fit the standards because he feels that the fraternity is for the student

Building Halfway

Southeastern Community College is now composed of four buildings. A fifth building has now reached the half-way mark of conclusion and will be referred to as a Multi-Purpose Classroom Building. When completed, the building will have classrooms, faculty offices, a P. E. area, and a lounge which will be similar to the one we now have.

The parking, sidewalks, and lighting fixtures will be the same as those of the other buildings.

There is a possibility of hot food in addition to the vending machines in the new building.