

Miss SCC crowned

October 15, 1970 saw the start of the reign of a new Miss Southeastern Community College, Miss Nancy Johnson. Miss Johnson, selected out of a field of twenty contestants, is a secretarial student and a Duncan, students. Ernest Cutler was the master of ceremonies.

Unusual interest was shown by the students this year after a spirited publicity campaign by the Publicity Committee of the Student Government

Runner-up in the contest was Marika Nagy, a cosmetology student from Germany. The other four of the six finalists were: Ava Best of Whiteville, Lounette Grainger of Loris, S.C., Armelda Bracy of Hallsboro, and Miss SCC, Nancy Johnson and runner up Marika Nagy.

sophomore in the Technical program. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Johnson of Fairmont and is a graduate of Fairmont High School.

The four judges of the contest were: Mrs. Shirley Basinger and Mr. Charles Grigsby, faculty members, Ion Green and Charles

Association. For the first time, many students saw a filled auditorium as hundreds of others had to wait outside to hear the final decision of the judges.

Musical entertainment was provided by Nancy and David Barden, Phyllis Wood, Bill Glisson, and Steve Miller; all but Phyllis are members of the college choir.

Select With Pride

CORBIN	LADY BUG
HAGGER	MYNETTE
ARROW	BUTTE KNITS
EAGLE	SACONY
FLORSHEIM	WEE JUN

LEDER BROTHERS
Downtown Whiteville

It's the real thing.
Coke.

Brother-sister, duo, Nancy and David Barden provide part of the entertainment at Miss SCC pageant.

Other contestants competing for the title of Miss Southeastern were Kathy Gore, Charlotte

Howard, and Cynthia Turbeville, from Whiteville; Judy Rogers of Dillon, S.C., Linda Hammond and Paula Hinson, from Chadborn; Peggy Hammond and Barbara McRae, from Fairmont; Phyllis Pierce of Hallsboro, Mamie Davis of Cerro Gordo, Pam Strickland of Clarendon, Sandra West of Bladenboro, Catrina Stanley of Tabor City, and Ruby Stevenson of Longwood.

Some of the people behind the scenes were: Peggy Self, Tommy

Holland, and Brenda Young, contest coordinators; Wanda

Utley, and Steve Vaughn, stanging; Vickie Ward, and Eloise Elps, flowers; and Jimmy Singletary, program chairman.

Tradition was broken at this event as Dr. Cottingham, because of the death of the former Miss SCC, Diane Rodgers, crowned the new Miss Nancy Johnson, our new Queen, is twenty years old, five feet five inches tall and weighs one-hundred twenty-five pounds. Her interests are sewing, horse-back riding, reading, and playing the piano.

Dr. Cottingham crowns Nancy Johnson.