

ram's horn

May 26, 1972

I, _____, as of this date, declare my sole purpose on this earth to be that of discerning what truth and meaning; purpose and sensibility there is existing as the cause or result of - or both - this world of which I am a part.

I will find this truth through meditation and reaching out to other people for relationships that will enhance their and my meaning in this world. For all men know a part of the truth of which no man knows all.

I further declare that I will always try to remain open - minded or become more so; so that I react fairly and lovingly to all I know and will know. I will try to become more thoughtful and more daring in my efforts to discover, seek, and reform, never backing down in the face of opposition but also realizing I am human and am capable of just so much of which I should never fail to attain, nor be ashamed of.

I therefore state my cause.....
