

Rebecca Johnson with students, Thessalonia Graham

Johnson Is President Of The NCTYCC

At the meeting of the North Carolina Two Year College Council held at the Royal Villa in Raleigh, March 11-13. Miss Rebecca Johnson was elected president for the year beginning June 1, 1976.

The NCTYCC is composed of reading specialists, adult basic education leaders, developmental studies instructors, and others interested in adult literacy in the community college system in North Carolina. The membership is currently about 60 persons and growing. The group is presently working on plans to update the two year college programs to the needs of four year institutions.

Miss Johnson came to Southeastern Community College in August of 1973. She received her Bachelors at Duke University, and her Masters in reading at the University of Virginia. Miss Johnson is presently an instructor in the English department here at SCC and has duties with Special Services and the Upward Bound Programs. Congratulations Rebecca Johnson. —Frank Suggs

MEET THE PRESS

AUDREY BUFFKIN

PHYLLIS McDANIELS

AUDREY GRANT

CHIP COX — ADVISOR

ALTON CHEWING — EDITOR

LENITA FREEMAN

ANDY TURNER