Miss SCC Is Crowned

Mary Venessa Malloy won the title of Miss SCC on November 13, 1976 at SCC's auditorium. Her talent was a vocal presentation from Porgy and Bess, "My Mans' Gone Now". Her voice was superb and enjoyed by all. She really brought the house down.

Margie Lee Flowers

was the second runner-up and her talent was also vocal. She sang, "The Way We Were."

Rebecka Hood was 1st runner-up and selected an "Essay on Art", which was quite unique.

Ms. Jeanne Swanner Robertson was master of ceremonies, and her personality was quiet outstanding and held the attention of all.

Our own Miss Sue Hawks was the director of the pageant. Professional, it was. If you did not come, you did miss a very good pageant.

To you Venessa, wear your crown proudly.

Dr. Moore Wins Proposal For Clemmons Trust Fund

Dr. Dan Moore has been awarded the Clemmons Trust Fund for this year. This award provides him with $1800 to be used for SGA students to go to Raleigh, N.C. and Washington, D.C. to study the government on a state and national level. This study will give the students a better understanding of the government and its functions.

The Clemmons Trust Fund is available to faculty or students of SCC to advance in some chosen profession or field. Four high school students from Columbus County are awarded a two-year scholarship to attend SCC. The acting chairman is Barry Nation of the English department.

Dr. Dan Moore is honored to be the recipient of the award for this year. The trip is scheduled for the months of February 27 and March 5, which is a quarter break for students here at SCC. Congratulations are in order for Dr. Moore and all SGA members.

Bennett Receives Doctorate At University Of Georgia

J. Michael Bennett, an instructor in the SCC Reading - English program, has recently completed his doctorate in Reading Education at the University of Georgia, where he studied under the distinguished professor Dr. Ira E. Aaron. As a part of his dissertation, Dr. Bennett developed three instructional modules designed to prepare secondary school language arts teachers to effectively teach basic English-Reading classes. A study to determine the feasibility of the modules was conducted on the SCC campus with Columbus County secondary Language Arts teachers last summer.

Dr. Bennett was graduated Cum Laude from the University of Florida, where he was a class-mate of another member of our English Department, Mr. Barry Nation. He was subsequently awarded a Ford Fellowship which enabled him to complete his master's degree in English Education (M.A.E.) at the same institution.

He then moved to Los Angeles and accepted a position as an Executive Sales Representative with the Xerox Corporation. After a successful two years in Los Angeles he transferred to Atlanta, and then to Athens, Georgia, and began his doctoral work. After one year he resigned his position with Xerox and accepted a teaching and assistantship at the University of Georgia.

Dr. Bennett taught Reading and English in Florida, Georgia, and North Carolina, and along with Drs. Grigsby and Marlin, completed his doctorate while teaching at Southeastern. We are pleased to have a sincere scholar and dynamic teacher such as Dr. Bennett on our faculty. We wish him the best of luck in his professional pursuits, and hearty congratulations on a difficult job well-done.
