WHERE WE BELONG

"O Holy Will! I belong to Thee!" cries out S. Francis of Sales, in one of his meditations. There is such security and joy in finding where we belong! To be exiled, is to be unhappy. To find the center of all our true relationships, is to be brave and happy. We belong to God, and therefore to His will. We are restless apart from that centre; we are at peace when we rest in God.—Zion's Herald.

—Esperanto is a practical universal language in the sense that a number of business houses having international relations issue catalogues and carry on correspondence in it, and there are about a hundred periodicals published in it. Many nations, states and cities have introduced it into their public schools.

ELON COLLEGE AND VILLAGE WELCOME LADIES OF THE CHURCHES.

The first mass meeting of the women of the Southern Christian Convention was held at Elon College May 27, 28. Monday evening the executive board composed of Mrs. C. H. Rowland, of Franklin, Va.; Mrs. W. H. Carroll of Burlington, N. C.; Mrs. W. T. Walters, of Winchester, Va.; Miss Bettie Stephenson, of Roanoke; Mrs. L. F. Johnson, of Raleigh; H. W. Elder, of Richland, Ga.; and Mrs. W. A. Harper, of Elon College, N. C., met and made plans for convention.

Tuesday morning the convention was called to order in the college auditorium, by the president, Mrs. C. H. Rowland. Addresses were made by Mrs. W. A. Harper, Mrs. W. H. Carroll, Dr. J. O. Atkinson and Mrs. J. P. Barrett of Dayton, Ohio. In the addresses missionary questions were discussed that had never been before.

Tuesday afternoon was well spent in the hearing of reports from the different committees. These reports were all good and showed that there was growing interest among the missionary women of the South.

Tuesday evening the delegates were highly entertained with an address given by Rev. W. H. Denison, of Norfolk, Va.

The closing session was held Wednesday morning. The concluding reports and miscellaneous work were completed. Feeling that the missionary question was more alive than ever, most of the delegates left on morning train for Burlington, to attend the Young People's Convention.

THE DEVIL'S ADVERTISEMENT.

Johnson the drunkard, is dying today,
With traces of sin on his face;
He'll be missed at the club, at the bar, at the play;
Wanted—a boy for his place.
Simons, the gambler, was killed in a fight;
He died without pardon or grace,
Some one must train for his burden and blight;
Wanted—a boy for his place.
