ELON COLLEGE, N. C., SEPTEMBER 23, 1921

CONCERT AND LECTURE COURSE TO BE GIVEN AT THE COLLEGE DURING THE FALL AND SPRING

Some of World's Greatest Artists to Appear Here in Concert. Program Will Be Under Auspices of Music Lovers' Club.

The Music Lover's Club of Elon announces that it has made arrangements for a concert and lecture course to be given at the college this year.

Professor Betts and Alexander visited New York this summer and personally arranged for this course. Some of the world's best talent will appear before the college and community during the year.

The course consists of five numbers. Three music numbers, one reader and one lecturer. All numbers will be of the highest order—each individual being a real artist in his or her special line.

The first number will be given October 13th by Walter Greene, American Baritone, assisted by Frances Moore, Pianist. Both come highly recommended, having given concerts in New York City and over the entire country.

Mr. Greene is a genuine Baritone with a voice of gorgeous beauty and remarkable range. His musicianship is sound and dependable, his art secure and he has that rarest of all abilities—the art of projecting each song with such vital and individual authority that he wins his audiences on the instant and holds their attention without a falter. The New York Times paid the following fine tribute to his personality, when commenting on his New York recital: "Such rich vocal material and virile presence should go far. Mr. Greene is a stalwart young Baritone—an admirable poreador."

Frances Moore, the assisting artist is a well known composer and accompanist. In the capacity of accompanist he has played for the greatest—Kreislner, Powell, Sembirch, Alda, and others. Mr Moore is heard several times each week in the concert halls of New York as accompanist. He will make his professional bow, as pianist to New York audiences on October 11th—Two days before coming to Elon.

The second number will be a lecture by Mr. Shaw Desmond, the noted English author and lecturer, on November 15.

Mr. Desmond, whose remarkable novels of contemporary life have made a profound impression throughout the English-speaking world is today arousing an usual degree of interest on both sides of the Atlantic by reason of his amazing versatility, his keen powers of observation and his striking originality as a fiction writer. By the leading English and American literary critics he has been awarded a foremost place in the ranks of modern novelists.

On January 6th Miss Frances Nash, American Pianist, will appear in piano recital. Miss Nash will be in this country only during January and February, 1922. The remainder of the season will be spent in England, France and Switzerland.

Miss Nash has her own special chickering Grand Piano which she will have sent to Elon for her concert here.

The New Haven Evening Register says: "Frances Nash proved to us that she is one of the finest of the younger family of real talented pianists. The Symphony patrons agreed that the praise this young lady has received in this country and outside was not unwarranted in the least."

"Miss Nash is a musician gifted by the gods to impart that which the composer toiled day and night for. Her technic is flawless, her tone beautiful."

The fourth number of the series will be a joint recital given by Mr. Roderick White, Violinist, and Miss Caryl Benschel, Soprano.

Mr. White is a violinist of rare attainments. He was selected from among many to go on tour with Madame Destiner, the noted Prima Donna.

Miss Benschel has a beautiful soprano voice which she uses with great skill and charm. She was selected as soloist at Chautauqua Institution, New York, the past summer—a distinction which does not come to many singers. They will appear here February 1st.

The concluding number of the series will be two Shakespeare readings, one in the afternoon and one in the evening of February 8th by Mr. C. E. W. Griffith, patronage of the Chicago Shakespeare Club.

Mr. Griffith's artistic renditions are based upon careful and original literary interpretation. He is the only reader in the world who reads every season all of Shakespeare's plays in public.

DR. LAWRENCE'S NEW PLAY WILL BE READY SOON

"For Humanity," Title of Play Reviewing Incidents of the World War.

"For Humanity" is the title of a play recently written by Dr. W. P. Lawrence, Dean of the college. The play is now on the press of The Mitchell Printing Company, Raleigh and will at an early date, be ready for release.

The play is expected to appeal strongly to Elon students and their friends as it is woven around the student life of Elon and the part of its sons in the World War. It will probably be staged at the college sometime during the present session; just who will constitute the cast has not been made public, but a grand presentation is anticipated.

As Dr. Lawrence views the World Catastrophe, it was a moral crusade. He rebels against the sordid materialism that has been in recent months assigned as the basis of the United States having entered the war.

"For Humanity" manifests the indignation of its author's heart against that insult to the nation and to the splendid young men of America, and especially of Elon, who gave their lives not for "interests" either national or personal, but "For Humanity."

SQUAD STILL WORKING HARD—ACTION SLOW

First Casualty of Season Occurs—Not Serious, However.

With the full squad of thirty-five men still working hard on the gridiron, the football prospects for Elon are slowly taking on a promising aspect. The cool weather has added to the zest and enthusiasm of the boys, and given them a rest from the gruelling heat under which they have been working.

Coach Corboy says the prospects are not as good as he would like at this time, but he has confidence that everything will be worked out, and the team will be in good shape for the first scheduled game of the season. This game to be played with Lenoir at Elon on October 1.

The first heavy casualty of the season occurred this week when Rudd suffered a painful injury in the form of a wrenched knee. This, however, will probably place him on the side line for two or three days only.

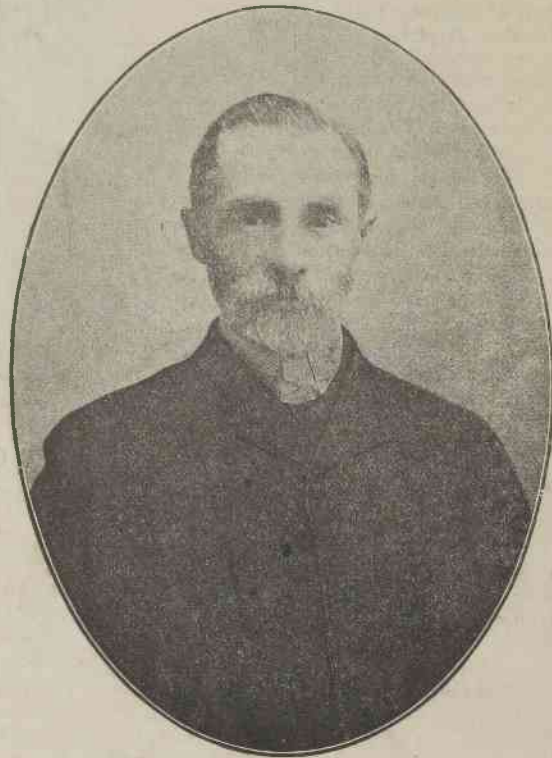

The simplest of plays and formations are being used in practice, and every man on the squad is being drilled thoroughly in all the details, as Coach Corboy has not yet decided on the personnel of the varsity.

A practice game has been arranged for Saturday, 24. Coach Corboy hopes to get a good line on his men in this game and smooth out the rough places in readiness for Lenoir.

GAME BETWEEN ELON AND GUILFORD FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Owing to numerous requests received from various sources for a football game to be played in Greensboro this fall, the athletic committee has arranged a second game with Guilford College to be staged on Armistice Day at Cone Park.

The regular annual game between Elon and Guilford will be played at Elon on Thanksgiving. Heretofore only one game has been played between the teams during the season, but the outside pressure brought to bear upon those in charge of athletics in the college, for a Greensboro game, made it necessary to arrange a second game.

Who Lectures At Elon Next Week

STUDENTS AGAIN TO HEAR DR. SUMMERBELL IN SERIES OF LECTURES

Subject of Series This Year, Will Be "The Prophet of Arabia."

Beginning Sunday, September 25, Dr. Martyn Summerbell of Lakemont, New York, will deliver a series of lectures to the students of Elon College.

For more than thirty years Dr. Summerbell has been a college lecturer. He has annual engagements with the Moody Bible Institute, Defiance and Elon. He has delivered several courses also at Bates College, Elmira, V. C. College and Palmer. For twenty years he has come to Elon with an annual series, famed for their erudition, elegance of diction and high idealism. One of his most famous series here was entitled "Manhood in Its American Type", now published in book form. Another quite famous series treated of "The American Indians."

This year Dr. Summerbell will speak in his chosen field, comparative religion, wherein he is an expert. His theme is "The Prophet of Arabia". It is safe to say when he is through, Elon students will have such an ideal of Mohammed and the system of religion he founded as could be had only through prolonged and laborious research.

Dr. Summerbell is scheduled to reach the college Sunday morning the 25th. He will preach twice that day and give his lectures on Monday and Tuesday following. Below is the roster of this year's series.

- Sunday, September 25
10:45 A. M.—Looking Unto Jesus.
8:00 P. M.—The Service of Love.
- Monday, September 26

CLIOS REINFORCE RANKS FOR THE COMING YEAR

Nearly a Score of New Men Added to Society—Prospects Good.

Last Monday evening will be written down as a great event on the calendar of the Clio Literary Society. Nearly a score of new men were added to their number and the outlook for the year is exceedingly bright. The new men entered readily into the Clio spirit and showed such promise of doing splendid work that the old members were greatly encouraged.

The evening's program was especially prepared for the occasion. Mr. Henry E. White, in his pleasing way gave a toast to the new men. This was followed by a reading in German-American dialect by Mr. Worth Wicker, which proved to be very interesting and highly entertaining. The humor of the evening was contributed by Mr. R. S. Rainey in the form of a negro sermon on the subject of apples. His ability to act the part of the negro preacher made the selection very enjoyable to all. This was followed by a declamation by Mr. Roy Helms, the subject being "The Deathbed of Benedict Arnold." Mr. Helms showed his oratorical ability by picturing the scenes so vividly that his hearers seemed to be literally at the deathbed. Mr. E. C. White ended the program with a very interesting and instructive talk on Clioism.

The following men were taken into full fellowship of the Clio Literary Society: Leon Watson, H. L. Thompson, W. J. Hooks, E. C. Brady, W. C. Elder, H. T. Crockett, G. A. Pierce, Oscar Atkinson, E. S. Parkerson, Ferald Rawles, Harold C. Hainer, P. A. Penny, D. P. Coghill, Wellons Dunn.

The Clios now have two score members which they have ever found to be the right number for doing the most effective work.

A flunker wants the professors to think he thinks what he doesn't think. And sometimes the professors think that he doesn't want them to think he thinks what he does think.

N. C. C. W. MAKES NEW RECORD IN ENROLLMENT

(By Collegiate Press Association)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 15.—The North Carolina College for Women opened its thirtieth annual session September 13th with an enrollment of 1,000, 509 of whom were new students. This is an increase of more than 200 over last year's enrollment, and the freshman class is this year the largest in the history of the college.

Thomas Sullivan, Cape Town, Africa, was arrested for breaking into the store of the British and foreign Bible Society and stealing a Bible. He was sentenced to three months imprisonment.

An aeroplane, in good condition, was recently sold in South America for $145.

DAVIDSON TO HAVE BIG CHAUTAUQUA

(By Collegiate Press Association)

Davidson, N. C., Sept. 17.—Everyone at Davidson was glad to learn that the Chautauqua was coming back again this year. It is booked for three days at Davidson, Sept. 19, 20, 21. The Davidsonians are anticipating three days of real entertainment.

Dr. Alexis Carrel of the Rockefeller Institute has a solution in which he is able to keep a chicken's heart intact. We would be very glad to get some of his solution here at Elon.

Winston Churchill, the famous English statesman, has presented to the Dundee Art Gallery one of his Palestine paintings to be sold for the benefit of the unemployed.
