Mrs. L. M. Cannon Gives Reading in Negro Dialect—President Harper Makes Brief Talk

Of the work and the society.

The stage was beautifully and appropriately decorated with Autumn leaves, Japanese pictures, sources, and palms. The costumes of the partiticipants were arranged to the greatest artistic skill under Japanese supervision.

After devoted services, a duet was rendered by Okyo and Moton, and two little Japanese poems were often heard in the Auditorium.

The Evening

On Saturday evening the girls' gymnasium was filled to capacity, when Miss Mary H. Scott gave a talk on "Tokyo." Several students of the music department also contributed to the program.

The football season is at its height, and the students are preparing for the big game. The football men are entertained with a dance and a buffet, the proceeds of which will be used to support the football team. The dance was held last Saturday night and was attended by a large number of students.

Miss Carl Winter, the new director of the women's dormitory, has been very successful in her work. The dormitory is now in a much better condition than it was before.

On Saturday afternoon, the students of the college were entertained with a picnic at the college grounds. The weather was perfect, and everyone enjoyed themselves.

The next bulletin will contain further information about the progress of the college during the fall term.
