

LOTTA JUNK

BY CANALL

Most of the experts are selecting their all-state teams, so we decided to join the crowd. It removes a great load from our shoulders, and the sooner it leaves our system, the better we'll feel. Look it over, and we feel sure that you will agree with us. We have witnessed each team in action at least once, and each man has been chosen by the value shown to his team. Here is our selection: Center—Groome, N. C. S.; Right Forward—C. Carmichael, U. N. C.; Left Forward—Simpson, Trinity; Right Guard—J. G. Frazier, Guilford; Left Guard—McAdams, Elon. Honorable Mention: Newman and Fix, Elon; Crute, Trinity; Perry and Green, Carolina; Homewood, N. C. S., and Heckman, Wake Forest.

The battery candidates have been working out in the gym for the last two weeks. Among the most promising of these are Braxton, "Ikey" Luke, Jesse Barker, and Fogleman, twirlers; and "Pat" Flynn and Underwood, catchers. It is claimed that "Ikey" Luke and Braxton are speed merchants, and ought to make the varsity. Well, here's wishing you luck, boys.

Boys, what's the use of worrying? Elon is not the only team in North Carolina that struck a snag in Virginia. It seems those Virginians delight in drubbing Carolina teams. State, Carolina and Trinity all were treated rough. Remember the old saying, "All's well that ends well."

What's the score? Who's ahead? Just a few of the questions the Durham rooters kept shouting Tuesday night a week ago. We didn't win the game, but, boys, somebody was anxious!

Remember, in football, how the referee says, "First down, ten to go"? Well, February 22nd reminded us of a real game. In the afternoon the whole student body was anxiously awaiting the dinner bell. It was two down and one to go, and when we got the signal, didn't we go?

Much has been said of our basketball team, but it seems that in the scuffle we forgot to mention the man who instructs the team, Coach F. B. Corboy. We congratulate him on giving us such a wonderful team!

* * * * *

Extra! Extra! Boys, the secret is out. It was too good to keep any longer. Remember how we all tried to ride free at different times, and each time "Mr. Bush" caught the guilty ones. Well, at last, he has been beaten. We promised to keep the guilty person's name a secret, but we'll ask "Ghee" Fix if he'll allow us to tell.

Last Friday night the student body of Elon had the opportunity of witnessing—we don't know what it was. It was scheduled as a basketball game between Wake Forest and Elon, but in our young days we called it leap-frog. Referee Steiner remarked after the game that it was his first experience in a prize ring.

The prospects for a winning baseball team this year seem very bright. Cast your eye over the material, and see, if your thoughts don't run along the same line. It is only three weeks until the opening college game. "Let's go," get that "pep" working and give the team a rousing send-off.

Say, fellows, did you ever mail a letter home? Ask O. H. King. He waited in Elon post-office three hours for the postmaster to come out and get his letter. Not green, but careful!
