

The Charlotte Observer

A CAROLINA NEWSPAPER FOR CAROLINA PEOPLE—CONSTRUCTIVE, CLEAN AND RELIABLE

Gives to its readers the worthwhile news of the Carolinas, the nation and the world, hot off the wires, fairly and accurately reported by its corps of special correspondents and the Associated Press, greatest news gathering agency in the world, supplemented by the Universal Service report and Newspaper Enterprise Association.

A paper produced by an organization that keeps constantly in mind the needs and desires of Carolina people and seeks to give them just what they want in general news, sports, market news, social news, fraternal order news and views, and numerous special articles and features for the benefit and entertainment of the whole family, including daily and Sunday comics.

A few of the many features that make THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER the ideal newspaper of the Carolinas are:

Editorials by able writers.
The only complete Fraternal Order Section published in the South.

Weekly articles by Frank H. Simonds, the world's greatest authority on international politics.

Weekly Bible Talks by America's Great Commoner, William Jennings Bryan.

Forward Observation Post—A weekly story of the World War, by Oale Burgess.

Weekly Book Reviews, by William Thornton Whitsett, President of Whitsett Institute.

The History of the South's Famous Songs, by Henry E. Harman.

Potash and Perlmutter, a weekly story by Montague Glass.

A department of Radio News, edited by the world's best authorities on the subject.

The Woman's Page; a section containing general household hints and recipes for the housewife.

One Minute Interviews, a page containing expressions and exchanges of views of the subscribers.

Pithy Paragraphs, a page full of laughs and chuckles. Prizes are offered each day for the wittiest sayings submitted by the subscribers.

Society of the Carolinas, a section featuring the social events of the two Carolinas.

The most complete and detailed report of Sports published in the state.

A Colored Comic Section on Sunday and several daily comic features, including the well-known "Bringing Up Father," by George McManus.

Fiction, Scientific Writings, and other feature articles.

A Church Directory, weekly Sunday school lessons, Real Estate page, etc.

Special attention is called to the Made-in-Carolinas Section, the object of which is to encourage, advance, and promote the industrial, commercial, civic, and social interests of the states of North and South Carolina.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED BY DR. AMICK

Department of Higher Education of N. C. Teachers' Assembly to Meet Soon.

The program in tentative form of the Department of Higher Education of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, which will meet in Raleigh in November, has just been announced by Dr. T. C. Amick, who is in charge of the work of this department of the Assembly.

The program includes a number of such as the following subjects: What is being done along the line of co-operation among the colleges of the state; how the state institutions and endowed colleges should co-operate in the future; financing the colleges in such ways as to insure their steady growth without closing their doors to worthy students; co-operation between colleges and high schools; and the relation existing between the State Department of Education and the colleges of North Carolina, and various other topics and discussions along this line.

The program for the most part will be carried on by college executives, some of the speakers being President Raymond Binford, Guilford College; President H. W. Chase, University of North Carolina; President W. P. Few, Trinity College; President W. L. Poate, Wake Forest College; President W. C. Riddick, State College; President W. A. Harper, Elon College; President Wm. J. Martin, Davidson College, and A. T. Allen, State Department of Education.
