THIS WEEK'S POEM By Sion M. Lynam H H TO MY MUSE

My Lady, smile again, and let Me write your smile into a song. The dimples in your cheeks are dead, Your lips are cold, and you too long Have frowned. My Lady, smile again Your smiles are poems that words refuse

To frame, but poets know how fair They are, out-shining rainbow hues.

I can but plead with you to smile. I know how poor my pen can write, But, Sweet, My Muse, I love your smiles,

And in them there is life and light.

My Lady, frown no more, but send

Into a wealth of smiles as rich In light as when the great sun dips In splendor toward his western bed Euterpe, silent is my pen, But smile, and I will write. I see upon your lips

He has just come to the place where he can be of greatest service to the college and to the work of the college. the college and to the work of the church in the South. We are also aware of the fact that Dr. Harper is one of the most promising figures in the field of Religious Education. His extensive study of the subject has made him an authority, and the need for such a man to head the work which the Christian Church has just undertaken is great, but shall Dr. Harper resign his work here to take up this new field?

From the North and West appeals for his acceptance are pouring in, but these people do not recognize the need in the South, and they are unacquainted Knows how to scatter the blackest the arms of Henrietta. with the particular needs of Elon.

In the report which names Dr. Harper for this important work there is a clause which may easily be interpreted to mean that he could do both. We know, too, that T the putting of this new work through will require the strongest of our leaders. Dr. Harper is fully competent to do either, but could he do both? It has occurred to us that it might be possi- That you'll get the best of the wide ble, since the two fields are so closely allied, that he might be relieved of some of his duties as a college president, delegating them to other authorities, and that trained departmental specialists be put in the field to do the work for the new department, while Dr. Harper shaped the poli-

We are under the impression that the work might be divided into the elementary, young peo-ple's, and the adult and schools and colleges departments with a trained specialist to develop each Such a scheme would keep Dr. Harper in the president's chair at Elon, and give him at the same time to the work of the new board.

Such a plan would involve sacrifice to both the college and the board, but in the ultimate it would be a saving to them both. Will Dr. Harper resign? We hope not, and we believe that it is unnecessary if the church has the vision and faith to do well the task to which it has so nobly set

BILLY BREAKS HIS SILENCE

Dear Dumbell:

Mighty freshman, I come into your wigwam in wrath.

There has slipped into the human race an individual that has framed me for more trouble than Solomon's fam ily ever had with the neighbors.

If it's you at the bottom of it I'm going to run an encursion of one down to the junction when you come home and knock you for a cross continent row of Polarine signs.

In the event that its not you here's explanation. Some guy has taken my name, added my address, bought every magazine that floats advertisements. and has unkindly sent me on 5 trial "Send No Money" mo than I can put down here skull an impression

I've received Thackeray, on writing epitaphs, sport of Simon Pure lard, furnace, nine sets speare, six memory courses, ewel watch like a freight conduc tor carries on the R. F. & P., two bushels of hyacinth bulbs, a kiddie car, a set of mule harness, an incubator (fowl), a pamphlet on bow to study French in your own kitchen, plus etc.

I laughs at the jokes but the next time I wanders near the post-office there is a set of O'Henry with Rider Haggard free, a can of varnish, a buck et of salt herring, a stethascope, a brass watch chain, four safety razors, a volume on dressmaking made easy, a flute. CHURCH LETS
Once there was a big boogy called a cast iron fat reducer, two bales of asbestos shingles, 49 books on how to pering around the classrooms and every get rich through boxing, cico analysis, The Ladies' Aid of the church has teacher put down a neat little 0 in the velope of violin strings, a set of sus agreed to put $1,000 into the building, grade book. The ones that called on penders, a contraption to keep me from snoring, and more etc.

Now I like fun better than no man but the express co. left on our front infant vehicles, 1 keg of sour krout 4 Carnegie libraries, 2 bags of oyster shells, 1 tractor, 40 plugs of tobacco, 1 saxaphone and 1 collapsed motor boat

Dad is wild, the post-office is a mass of congested spleen, the express co's

Pal o' mine, if you sent this stuff on five days trial then I am going to Welle Company to the company yard now that some M. D. won't be able to find out whats wrong with you Yours in wrath, BILLY
