QUAKERS GO DOWN BEFORE THE CHRISTIANS IN ANNUAL BATTLE ON ARMISTICE DAY

Maroon and Gold Machine Scores 20 Points While Coach Doak's Men Squeeze Out 6.

PERRY STARS FOR ELON

Last Year's Game Ended in a Draw—Aerial Attacks Net Gains on Both Sides.

The Maroon and Gold eleven last Saturday trampled upon Coach Doak's squad of Guilfordians at Cone Park by a score of 20 to 6. For the past four years Elon and Guilford have come together in this annual gridiron classic. Guilford won from the Christians the first two years. Last year at Cone Park the game was played to a draw, but in a return game on the Comer Field at Elon the score was all on the home team's side. So it was that both teams anticipated a hard fight, the fans of both sides uncertain as to the outcome. Such circumstances necessitated one of the hardest fought games ever played in Greensboro.

The contest started with Guilford receiving the kick-off. Guilford at once tried her line shift, but it failed to bring results and was not used thereafter. During this period there was little ground covered except by the exchange of punts, and Perry of Elon always sent the pigskin higher and further than the Quakers. The first quarter ended with the ball in the center of the field and standing over it was Braxton, Elon's center.

In the second quarter the Quakers were at the top in their strength as a line. They held Elon for a first down and cut her flanks for short end runs through the splendid playing of Purvis. Johnson was making a dash around left end for 15 yards but he stopped, hit the ground, the ball rolled out of his arms—he had been hit by McAdams. This was the changing point of the game, for at once Fix covered the ball, and dashing through the line, covered 50 yards and placed the ball on the nine-yard line. Following this was a line plunge made by Fix, a forward pass, and the ball was carried over by Kirkland. Perry, sure on a drop-kick, made the extra point.

After another kick-off, Guilford started her fighting anew. Thomas made an end run for 35 yards, followed by an aerial attack which netted another first down. The first half ended with Guilford deep in Elon's territory.

In the last of the third quarter the unexpected happened. Upon Elon's punting, the ball hit the ground and started rolling back toward the goal of the receivers. This took place in seconds and Shore, watching his chance, pounced upon it and was away for a run that was stopped on the 20-yard line. A line plunge then made ground and a forward pass over the heads of all fell into a Guilfordian's arms behind the goal line. But they failed to add another point when their drop-kick missed the stays.

When Elon received the ball again she started forward passing and during all the game no better playing was seen; Clark seemed always open, pulling down the ball and at the same time fighting off the opposing men. After being penalized for five yards because of holding, Perry attempted another pass and it was intercepted. The Quakers attempted a punt and it was blocked by Brown and covered by Whitesell. The quarter changed and the Maroon and Gold squad marched down the field tumbling Guilford's line, which was

Y. C. C. IS ENTERTAINED BY THE YOUNG LADIES

Alpha Omega Eta Acts as Hostess to Young Men at Delightful Party.

An entertainment in the form of a delightful party was given the boys of the Young Citizens' Club here Wednesday evening by the girls of the Alpha Omega Eta Club. The Y. C. C. headquarters building was used for the party, and with the decorations of ferns and blue and white crepe paper the club room made a very attractive place for the entertainment.

Progressive rook, a drawing contest, carom, and other indoor sports were engaged in, which furnished entertainment and amusement. Crumpton Wicker proved himself the best hand at rook and won first prize, a large kewpie doll, which was presented by Coach Corboy. Ben Bradshaw won the only other prize, which incidentally was the booby prize, a jumping-jack, also presented by Coach Corboy.

Reading by Miss Elise Caddell and Mrs. L. M. Cannon with music from the graphonola were appreciated items of the evening.

The A. O. E. girls served tasty refreshment of coffee, chicken salad, sandwiches, pickles, saltines, and punch.

The guests of honor were Mesdames W. A. Harper, D. W. Brown, F. B. Corboy, C. M. Cannon and L. M. Cannon.

Elon and Lynchburg To Battle Saturday

Both Teams Enter Contest With Long Record of Victories.

MEN EAGER FOR THE BATTLE

Lynchburg College on Comer Field is the next item on Elon's gridiron schedule. Lynchburg's husky chargers will come to Elon on Friday and the game will be staged on Saturday.

Playing on the home field Elon will have the advantage of the visitors, but from scores Lynchburg has piled up against North Carolina teams already this season is looks like the Christians will need any advantage they may be able to gain. Against Wake Forest Lynchburg scored 20 points to their seven. However, with a string of five successive victories attached to their record with the winning of the Guilford game at Greensboro, Elon will not be dismayed at the reported strength of the Lynchburg aggregation, but will take the gridiron to down her opponents at the blowing of the whistle on Saturday.

This will be Elon's second game on her home grounds, and student enthusiasm is already bubbling over in anticipation of the contest. The Maroon and Gold followers of the pigskin came through the Guilford game last Saturday in good shape. Five stitches had to be taken in Perry's lip, but he will be well enough in a few days to don the headgear again. Flynn's old injury was aggravated somewhat, and he will be resting this week, but he will be ready to jump into the game at the coach's call. Grady Brown, who has been out of the game for a good part of the season with an injured shoulder, will be back in uniform by Saturday but it is hardly expected that he will take part in the Lynchburg game. CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS HOLD ONE-DAY INSTITUTE

Meeting Held at Burlington—White, of Elon, Elected to Office of Vice-President.

One of the most enthusiastic gatherings of young church folks ever witnessed in Alamance county was the Christian Endeavor Institute conducted at the First Christian church in Burlington Monday afternoon and night under the auspices of the Burlington Graham Christian Endeavor Union.

The institute consisted of two rallies of representatives of the Christian Endeavor societies of the various denominations in Alamance county. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the first rally was held for superintendents and members of the Junior societies of the various churches of Burlington and Graham.

The speakers for the institute were Charles F. Evans, general secretary of the All-South Christian Endeavor movement, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Frank P. Wilson, field secretary of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Endeavor unions.

The afternoon rally began with a song and devotional service led by Mr. Wilson, followed by a solo by Miss Teague. Then a discussion of the Junior Christian Endeavor work was led by Mr. Evans.

From 6:30 to 7:30 a social meeting and banquet were enjoyed in the basement of the church in which about 150 young people participated. Orchestra music was furnished by the Huff orchestra.

At 7:30 the second rally of the institute began with a song service, followed by devotionals led by Rev. W. R. Potter, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Burlington. Mr. Wilson was the first speaker on the program, and presented the program of the work of the North Carolina Christian Endeavor Union, which includes the monthly service themes, goals and the general activities of the various societies in the state. Mr. Evans was heard next, and he told of the general program of work outlined by the offices of the All-South Christian Endeavor headquarters, located at Chattanooga, Tenn.

In the middle of the evening program a brief business session of the institute was held, during which a County Christian Endeavor Union was organized, to be known as the Alamance County Christian Endeavor Union, and to be composed of all Christian Endeavor societies of the various denominations in the county, numbering a hundred or more. The officers elected were: J. B. Turner, Burlington, president; M. J. W. White, Jr., of Elon College, vice-president; Miss Eva Rumbley, of Burlington, recording secretary; Miss Eva Burke, of Burlington, corresponding secretary, and Dallas C. Neese, of Burlington, treasurer. A meeting of the county union is to be called at a later date, at which time plans for the work of the new county organization will be outlined.

One of the most interesting features of the evening program was an illustrated lecture by Mr. Evans. Stereopticon views were used in giving the lecture, showing facts concerning the early history of Christian Endeavor, and views of societies in various parts of America and other nations, indicating the rapid growth and extension of the movement. The pictures presented included views of organizations in China, Finland, Korea, Germany, India, France, and on board ships at sea. The lecture was concluded by showing on the screen quotations from prominent statesmen of the nation, including Pres-

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD IN THE COLLEGE CHAPEL

Body of Mrs. W. T. Herndon Interred in the Village Cemetery—Former Resident of Elon.

The funeral services of Mrs. W. T. Herndon were conducted in the college chapel November 11. The very impressive funeral service was read by Dr. N. G. Newman and followed by prayer. Dr. J. U. Newman and Dr. W. C. Wicker assisted the college pastor in the sad rites of this occasion.

Mrs. Herndon was a Miss Clara Edwards, of Wake county. She was one of a family of 15 children, all of whom except two she survived. In 1867 she was married to Dr. W. T. Herndon, at that time a physician, who afterward entered the ministry of the Christian church. Five children were born to them.

Dr. Herndon and his family lived formerly at Elon College. About seven years ago they moved to Asheville on account of his failing health. Dr. Herndon died and was buried here some months ago. Since his death Mrs. Herndon had made her home at Winston-Salem. She was a member of the Christian church at this place and her life was one of consecrated devotion to God. She continued to contribute liberally to the support of her church, although her home was in a distant city. Dr. N. G. Newman in his beautiful sermon paid her some very wonderful tributes. She has been not only a home-maker but kept the high ideal of Christianity always before her, both in her public and in her home life. The floral offerings which were many and beautiful attested to the love and esteem in which she was held by her many friends.

After the service her body was interred in the village cemetery.

ANCIENT CALABOOSE IS VICTIM OF JOYMAKERS

Overjoyed Students Apply Torches to Landmark—Idle for Nearly a Quarter Century.

The Elon student body was so overjoyed because of its victory in Greensboro Saturday over Guilford College in football that when the rooters returned to the Hill in the wee small hours of Sunday morning they betook themselves in mass to the ancient municipal calaboose and proceeded to apply torches to it.

The city jail—as it is called in dignified circles—seemed glad to go up in flames in honor of such an important event in student life. It is not known whether the city fathers will be under obligation to apply to the students for reimbursement for the destruction of this antique landmark which has fallen into what Grover Cleveland described as "innocuous desuetude" for the past 22 years. The town jail house was last occupied by a colored man who had imbibed too freely of what the Volstead act forbids in the year 1900, and has not been needed for any of the violators of the ordinance of the august city authorities for nearly a quarter of a century. The students had promised themselves faithfully, so the whisper is, to wipe out every suggestion against the freedom of the citizens should they be victorious in the game on Armistice Day, and they made good their promise in the early morning hours of November 12.

Misses Nellie Hamilton and Lena Jackson spent the week-end at Miss Hamilton's home in Leaksville.

Miss Margaret Moring spent the week-end at Ramseur with Miss Madge Moffitt.

BEAR CATS REAP FIRST VICTORY OF SEASON BY DEFEATING G. H. S.

Comer Field Is Scene of Lively Tilt Between Elon Second String Men and Greensboro High—Hooks Makes Sensational Play—Score 19-14.

The Pugnacious Bear Cats of Elon fought their way to their first great victory of the season last Friday on Comer Field by defeating the Greensboro High School eleven by a score of 19 to 14. The first score of the Bear Cats came in the first quarter after having made splendid gains through the line and around the end. Hook in a sensational play completed a pass and through an open field like a flash made 55 yards for the first score. The extra point was not made.

In the second quarter Greensboro ran in a new team entirely, but even these did not handle those Bear Cats whose bristles were now straight up. Braxton of Elon, after a number of gains through the line, carried the ball across the goal for the second touchdown. Jones at once added an extra point by kicking a goal.

On the kickoff Farmer sent the ball across the goal line, and as it was being brought back to the 20-yard line Greensboro again sent her varsity in, but to no avail. Coah Corboy sent Hainer in, who made wonderful gains around both right and left ends. Jones called for a line plunge and ripped the line for a third touchdown.

The Elon eleven seemed able to cope with anything that the Gate City team tried to put across, until the last three minutes of the game, when Jones fumbled just behind the line. As quick as a flash one of Greensboro's men had it on the way for a 60-yard dash which netted the high schol boys their first touchdown. The extra point was made. Their other points came instantly, by a series of long forward passes.
