We notice that one college paper calls the attention of the public to the fact that it is "the most readable college paper in the state." In our infancy it might things than before. The number of be rather far-fetched to aspire to such a thing. But we are set to wondering to whom we should go as authority if we desired to lessening. It is a false supposition to compete for this honor.

"The Volunteer" is making its regular appearance in the field of true that the lack of a dollar may be in journalism. This is the second some instances the primary motive for year in the history of this inter- a young man to undertake to work his esting little paper. THE GLEE CLUB

To be classed among the best colleges in this day it is necessary for an institution to foster the different phases of life that are popular among the young people of the day. These activities are the most forceful advertisements the school can have. It is true that the type of man or woman a college puts out is a safe method who have gone to college without a whereby a college may be judged; but an institution will never have the opportunity to graduate worthy men and women without having means of making the school a popular one by fostering these different branches of school life.

perate struggles to make the glee many because of the many things that club a going propositoin, but somehow it has failed. Last year take. The high schools are undertaking the idea of such an organization so much that is patterned after college was abandoned altogether. This life that too many of our high school year an exceptional opportunity graduates are led to believe that they is offered the college to have a have "completed" all that is in the glee club. Professor Greenwood, being an experienced concert that are now delivered to high school singer, is efficient to furnish the graduates, the elaborate class exercises, successful organization.

Professor Greenwood has already organized the club and is just as well off without a college edu setting! rapidly rounding the members into shape for public appearance It is up to the college and the students to furnish them the nec essary support.

We must have strong organization of college departments; we must have strong professors at the heads of the various departmems; but to have a really successful and progressive college, we must have good representative organizations representing the talent and ability of the students in different activities.

There is a midway ground that should be recognized. It is just as disastrous to the possibilities of a thorough college course to be forced to work too much in earning money while pursuing the other direction and have too much Both photos were taken at the Bi-Urnimoney to spend. WEE, WEE, MASSEUR

If the endustries of America wish to have you for a tryout of their various products, why should you shrink your duty? Mebbe I did send all that junk, just possibly mebbe. Let's talk about your college education further.

In the days before yesterday when I was first browsing on this 25 aker campus my studies looked so heavy offhand that I signed the dotted line for french and how I was bit thereby is amidship this tale.

I run into french cause I had had opportunities 1st hand to study him in his habitat and dugout in France when we was on the continental tour with the Expeditionairy Forces.

College french aint french, its linguistic anatomy. Stead of walking up to some guy with "Bon jour masseur," we takes a little book and studies words what aint what they apears to be. Then somebody another says, "Mr. Smith will read the 3rd sentence by translating for us. Then I drags my wits ends in offen the R. R. tracks and reads for an example to you like this: "Ca et la en Francais vous etes sur la table," this translated into Ameri-We view with amazing and growing can is, "Here and there in France keep drew a bayonet and yelped in modern french, "Say you frog, dee-don, savvy voo, exit pronto offen the bean board.

I am weary unto sickness of book 2,645 french cause teacher says I am always wrong & I dont dare back up no an swer. Me who was one of us on divers occasions when we would of starved if we could not of spoke the understand able french. Here I sits in class try ing to keep my mind on the line they is mumbling over but it goes back via Hoboken to other sides & I gets hungry to see the frogs and you and me all laundered up and beatin into some of their 6 house cities for an evenins entertainments.

Wonder where the little restrant boy called Garcon is? Wheres Marie and old Pap Jean? We used to make them understand o.k. for they would shrugg there shoulders and smile.

Boy Billy, couldn't Babette sing? Specially choruses. Cant you hear-"Et tu je amore,

Huit cheval ou quarante hommes, Souffler chemin de fer,

Mio doux pomme de terre." Gee, I wisht I could hear her once more up at Nancys in the little inn door. No, and you would not shed any tears to see little dark eyed Marionette lacking down the cobbles in them little wooden shoes waving dainties hand and calling, "Arresty-voo, pour moi, mon Meester Billay.'' No you wouldn't.

Its one of life's ironkness, Billy. Ive wrote about 10 letters to that little sprite in L'or de Chapelle and never an answer. All Ive got is letters back and a tiny kodaks pitcher of her. I no I couldn't of been wrong for I wrote In order to give our readers the best, it down, its Madum Mozelle, 82 la rue de chien, L'Or da Chapelle, France.
