"HEARTS" DISCUSSED AT
THE Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Program for Remainder of the Year Is Announced, Together With Committees.

One of the most interesting and most beautiful Y. W. C. A. programs of the year was held last Sunday evening, February 11, in the girls' gymnasium, with Miss Isabelle Dixon as leader. The time being so near St. Valentine's Day, the topic chosen for the evening's program was "Hearts." But the subject was treated in a way very different from which it is usually treated at a Valentine party.

Across the front of the room four large red hearts bearing the letters Y. M. C. A. were suspended. The leader had prepared smaller white hearts on each of which was written a Bible verse containing the word heart, and which were distributed among those present at the meeting by two girls who stood at the doorway and presented each member with a heart as she entered.

The program was opened with the singing of the song, "Day is Dying in the West," followed by the song, "If Your Heart Keeps Right." After the songs, Miss Dixon read the Bible lesson for the evening, which consisted of a number of Bible verses containing the word heart, and Miss Victoria Adams led the meeting in prayer. This was followed up with a talk by the leader on "Hearts," and a number of beautiful and animated short talks on the same subject by different Y. M. C. A. members.

The closing song of the evening's program was "True Hearted, Whole Hearted," after the singing of which the leader pronounced the benediction.

The programs for the remaining part of this college year have already been planned; and below is a list of the subjects to be discussed together with the names of those who are to have charge of the meetings:

February 18
Subject: "Blue Ridge Echoes. Representatives—Victoria Adams, Mary Graham Lawrence, Chiyo Ito, Mildred Kirkland, Pattie Coghill, Mrs. W. P. Lawrence.

February 25
World Fellowship Meeting—World Fellowship committee, leaders.

March 4
Slides on Race Problem: Contrast of Educational Advantages for the Negro of Today with those of ten years ago—Mrs. A. L. Hook, Freda Dimmick, leaders.

March 11
Subject: "Jesus in the State"—Margaret Moring and Alma Smith, leaders.

March 18
Play: "In His Steps." Finance Committee and Expression Pupils; Doctor Anna I. Helfenstein, supervisor. Silver Offering.

March 25
Mass Meeting.

April 1
Easter Pageant—Religious Meetings Committee.

April 8
World Fellowship Meeting—Slides on Africa.

April 15
Subject: "New Mercies"—Mrs. R. S. Rainey and Elise Caddell, leaders.

April 22
Mass Meeting.

April 29
Subject: "Who's Afraid?"—Kate Strader and Irene Hill, leaders.

May 6
Subject: "Keeping Open House"—Alice Barrett and Rena Smithwick, leaders.

May 13
Subject: "Christian Kindness"—Rita Rothgeb and Nannie Aldridge, leaders.

Valentine Party Is Delightful Social

Interesting Contests Feature of Occasion — Decorations Very Appropriate.

Youth calls out for the quiet, fun and companionship of youth. The rollicking laughter and the happy spirit that prevailed Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock at a delightful valentine party showed clearly that this call of youth for youth had been heard and answered. After dinner, which was served at 5:30 o'clock those who were to act as host and hostesses to the guests at their respective tables, by very energetic effort changed the college dining hall in West Dormitory into a beautiful and charming place, artistically decorated with red hearts, cupid's darts, etc.

At the ringing of the bell, the students who had been enjoying a social hour in the reception hall entered—rather, rushed in, eager for what was to follow. The couples were soon seated at the various tables, and the merriment began. Amusing contests, games, jokes, etc., were engaged in, music was rendered by Messrs. Hatley, Everett and Miss Moffitt and others, apples and candy kisses were served as refreshments and unique prizes were awarded to the winners of the contests. The bell sounded for the end of the hour and every one went away reluctantly but in happy spirits.

Many declared this the most delightful Valentine party they had ever attended and all must have felt that good Saint Valentine himself would have smiled on the scene. Much gratitude is due those who worked so faithfully that the students might have this enjoyable party.

SYNOD BACKS APPEAL FOR LENOIR COLLEGE FUNDS

Morgan Declares Lenoir College Is
"Standing on the Brink of Greatness."

(Special to Maroon and Gold)
Hickory, N. C., February 12,—In a striking appeal to the Lutheran people of North Carolina to "give themselves unstintedly" to the work of backing Lenoir College to the utmost, Dr. John L. Morgan, president of the North Carolina Synod of the United Lutheran Church, today fired the second big gun of the campaign for enlargement of the college's activities. The first was fired by the Board of the College one week ago when it announced that "because the need of buildings is desperate and the work of the college is suffering now for want of proper buildings and equipment, it was decided to make an appeal this spring for $850,000 for the needed expansion of the institution," of which $300,000 had been pledged as the gift of Daniel E. Rhyne, wealthy cotton mill owner of Lincolnton.

Miss Pauline Nelson, former violin teacher here, will visit Mrs. W. A. Harper over Sunday. Miss Nelson is now teaching at Meredith College, Raleigh, N. C.
