sacks is preferred, but clothing can be shipped by freight if most convenient to the shipper.

Governor Morrison's proclamation is as follows:

"Whereas, it has been established that the suffering of the Armenians and other Christian peoples of the Near East is from reasons beyond their control, and that they are unable to rehabilitate themselves for this same reason; and,

"Whereas, it is reported by reliable Americans that, aside from the old clothing which America sends them, these people have nothing but burlap bags and flour sacks to keep out the cold of winter, their climate being similar to that of our New England states; and,

"Whereas, unless sufficient clothing is sent from America this summer many thousands will freeze to death next winter; and,

"Whereas, the North Carolina Division, Near East Relief, has set 150,000 pounds of warm, usable, cast-off clothing, which, it is estimated, will save 30,000 humans from death by freezing next winter, as its goal:

"Therefore, I, Cameron Morrison, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby declare May 1, 1923, 'Bundle Day,' and request the people of our State to gather all of their discarded winter clothing and either turn it over to their Near East Relief county chairman or other agency which is collecting clothing for the Near East Relief, or send it to the Near East Relief Clothing Warehouse in Raleigh, where it will be sent with all possible dispatch to the suffering peoples across the seas."

be buried in the woods near the village. It is needless to say that the women pulled through all right.

There was a large audience present and they bought freely of the dainty refreshments that were sold by the Circle No. 2. The play and refreshments were greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Those taking part in the play were: Mesdames Jas. A. Dickey, H. D. Lambeth, J. D. Oldham, J. U. Newman and W. E. Lowe, Misses Mary D. Atkinson, Marion Lee Newman, Irene Pritchette, Josephine Farmer and Elizabeth Lowe.

A Wonder

"Yes, indeed," said DeBoast, "my hearing is extraordinarily acute."

"You don't say!" put in Von Broke.

"Can you hear my watch ticking from where you stand?"

"Easily."

"Well, you are a wonder! It's at the pawnbroker's, ten blocks away."

No Better, Thanks

A noted physician had recommended walking to a nervous patient. The nervous one started to cross the street after leaving the doctor's office. A truck skidded and buried him against the curb, where he lay until the doctor, having seen the accident, hurried to his side.

"Aren't you hurt?" inquired the physician anxiously.

"Well," replied the patient, "I can't say I feel much better."—American Legion Weekly.
