

THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY

TO THE VISITING FRIENDS AND ALUMNI OF ELON COLLEGE

We are always glad to have you in our midst. We want you to feel at home, and to enter into the excellent spirit of Elon that you helped to create. In view of these facts, we wish to properly locate you when you come. If you will notify the Local Alumni Secretary in advance of your arrival he will meet you at the station and will be glad to serve you in any capacity.

FERRY LEE GIBBS,
Local Alumni Secretary,
Box 323, Elon College, N. C.

AN INTERESTING LETTER

My Dear Mr. Editor:

I was much interested in your letter to the Alumni in your August 1 number of Maroon and Gold. I also feel a bit guilty of what you accused the whole blooming bunch of us. But being a preacher and a slave to my profession like the rest of them, I can't do a thing but preach, and I know that the college student of all people hates to be preached to most. So what can I do to make myself heard in your paper? I am going to try an experiment. I am enclosing check for a year's subscription along with a little sermon for the "Swell-heads" of the campus. You being one of them I figure that you will be honor-bound to publish it. I hope that you will find space for it in one of your early issues, so as to come before your class-mates at the beginning of this most momentous year in their lives. I really do feel that what I am saying is important. "Honest Injun," Mr. Editor, I mean every word of it.

I have enjoyed your paper all along, but I think that the summer issues have been especially fine. Keep pulling for unity and progress and you will render a great service to your college. My best wishes go with you and the college in every undertaking that is begun.

ONE OF THE SILENT ONES.

ALUMNA OF ELON WEDS UNIVERSITY GRADUATE

Miss Mamie Pickard Becomes Bride of Grady Leonard—Will Live in Chapel Hill, N. C.

A wedding of much interest throughout the State was solemnized at Chapel Hill September 8, at 7. A. M., in the home of Mrs. S. M. Pickard, when her daughter, Mamie, became the bride of Mr. Grady Leonard. Rev. Britton J. Howard, of the Christian Church, officiated, using the impressive ring service.

The home was artistically decorated with roses and ferns. An improvised altar of white, laden with ferns and roses, furnished an attractive background. The room was softly lighted by candles, which rested on white pedestals covered with ferns.

The bridal party entered while Miss Annie Lee Webb played Lohengrin's "Wedding March." During the ceremony, she played very softly McDowell's "To a Wild Rose." Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as the recessional.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a cut-steel, beaded dress of gray flat crepe, with accessories to match. She carried a large bouquet of Bride roses and fern. The maid of honor, Miss Maggie Pickard, a sister of the bride, wore a beaded navy-blue satin crape. The bridesmaids, Misses Grace Neville and Rachel Fowler, wore dresses of Spanish lace and Canton crepe. The ring-bearer, little P. R. Perry, Jr., a nephew of the bride, was adorably sweet in a suit of white linen. The ring was carried in a pink rose.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Clyde Brooks, of Greensboro; Lacy Peele Poythress, of Charlotte, and Glenn Turner Sykes, of Mebane.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. M. Pickard, of this place. She is a graduate of Elon College, and for several years served as a most capable teacher for the State. At present she holds a responsible position at the university as secretary to Dr. E. C. Branson.

The groom comes from Lexington. He graduated at the University of North Carolina in June of this year, and since that time has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work, with headquarters in Durham, N. C.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for a motor trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. Upon their return, they will be at home in Chapel Hill.

B. O. B.'s Are Guests At Home Of Member

MISS LAWRENCE IS THE HOSTESS

Mrs. C. M. Cannon Assists in the Entertainment of the Evening; Girls Get Roses.

The B. O. B.'s had an unusual treat last Sunday night in being invited to Dr. Lawrence's home for their weekly social meeting. Here they were met by Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Mary Graham Lawrence, and Mrs. C. M. Cannon. The home was beautifully decorated with the roses for which the Lawrence home is known. General conversation and some of the standard jokes were heard, and in a short time Miss Lawrence and Mrs. Cannon, who were entertaining, served a delicious salad course, accompanied by pineapple-ade.

When time to leave came, Mrs. Lawrence generously gave the girls a great bunch of roses, and they made their way happily home, after the treat of a feast out in town and under the spell of the Harvest Moon.

Those present were Miss Fisher, the honorary member of the club; Misses Della and Essie Cotten, Sarah Carter, Mary Hall Stryker, Victoria Adams, Pattie Coghill, Ruth Crawford, Clara Tuck, Margaret Rowland, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Mary Graham Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cannon.

Y. W. CABINET ENJOYS CAMP SUPPER OUTING

Dr. "Bill Allen" Represents the Male Species on Picnic of Girls—Advisory Board Are Guests.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet, together with the members of the advisory board, enjoyed one of the pleasantest outings of the season on Tuesday afternoon.

The group left the college about five o'clock and hiked to the place chosen for the picnic, a lovely meadow with big rocks and plenty of dry sticks to make a fire.

Once there, Dr. Bill, the one male member of the party, made the fire. Several girls went to a spring for some water and when they came back, Dr. Bill's better half made the coffee. Miss Marshall remarked that the scene was close to the heart of nature, and Dr. Anna toasting bacon near the fire, replied: "Yes, I've heard the center of the earth is hot."

Everyone was in a good humor and did her bit (Dr. Harper did his bit by slicing bread and building the fire) toward preparing the picnic supper. "Hot dogs" and bacon were roasted, and there were tomato and peanut butter sandwiches, hot coffee and apples.

After the supper was eaten songs were sung by the light of the fire, and yells were given, everybody yelling for everybody else. There were yells for the "supper committee," for the advisory board, for the Y. W. C. A. girls, for Dr. Bill's fire and Mrs. Lizzie's coffee. Then the fire was extinguished with the coffee and the party returned by the light of the moon.

Those who enjoyed the camp supper were: Victoria Adams, Nannie Aldridge, Lucy Austin, Kate Strader, Mary Lee Foster, Ruby Rowland, Margaret Joe Ballentine, Mamie Sockwell, Bessie Martin, Annie Mae Lackey, Frankie Marshall, Dela Cotten, Rose Howell, Marjorie Burton, Lillian Harrell, Dr. and Mrs. Harper, Mrs. A. L. Hook, Miss Louise Savage, and Dr. Anna Helfenstein.

M. Z. Rhodes, '23, has accepted work with the Shenandoah Collegiate Institute as head of the department of mathematics. Mr. Rhodes will not, however, devote his entire time to this work, but will continue his connection with the Shenandoah press. Mrs. Rhodes will probably be connected with the music department of the Shenandoah Collegiate Institute. Their address is Dayton, Va.

R. S. Helms is principal of the Newton Grove high school in Sampson county, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Rainey, '22 and '23, respectively, are teaching in the Burlington high school.

Psykaleons Hear A Program Of Merit

READINGS ENJOYABLE FEATURES

Misses Ballentine and Barrett Read Acceptable Papers Before Literary Society.

The second program given by the Psykaleon Society this year was interesting and varied. The new society, with its organization fully completed, has started to work in earnest.

The first number on the program was an essay entitled "Stepping Stones," by Miss Margaret Joe Ballentine. It was an excellent essay, and conveyed a fine moral.

Following the essay Miss Mary Lee Williams read Edgar A. Guest's poem, "Home," with a musical accompaniment. The poem, in itself touching, was read well and with much expression.

The third number was a paper on "French Women," read by Miss Alice Barrett. The women of France were compared with the women of America. The work was unique and interesting.

Miss Annie Simpson then entertained the society with some very good jokes; these had a local touch that made them very enjoyable.

The last number was a reading. Robert W. Service's "Shooting of Dan McGrew," by Miss Mabel Wright. The reading was given most acceptably in the pleasant style of rendition characteristic of Miss Wright. It was a very enjoyable number.

L. J. Perry, '23, and Miss Irene Goff, '23, are teaching at Mount Olive high school.

IF YOU WANT SHOES WE HAVE 'EM

New styles are added to our stock weekly.

BEST PRICES : : BEST SERVICE

Montgomery-Johnston Company

Burlington, N. C. Near Post-Office
Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention

The Vogue

Shop for Men

Guilford Hotel Corner
GREENSBORO, N. C.

Rose Theatre

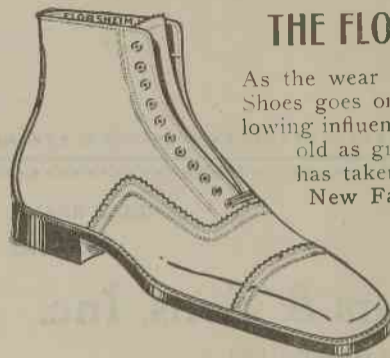

BURLINGTON, N. C.

Thursday and Friday
Sept. 27 and 28

MARION DAVIES in "WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER"

Monday and Tuesday
Oct. 1 and 2

HAROLD LLOYD in "SAFETY LAST"

THE FLORSHEIM SHOE

As the wear of a pair of Florsheim Shoes goes on, they reflect the mellowing influence of time. They grow old as gracefully as a man who has taken good care of himself. New Fall Styles Now Ready

Foster Shoe Co.

305 Main Street
Burlington, N. C.

ELON COLLEGE

ALMA MATER

For Full Particulars, Address

PRESIDENT W. A. HARPER, ELON COLLEGE, N. C.

CLEGG'S FASHION SHOP

Costumes and Millinery : : Beauty Parlor in Rear
Front St. Phone 764 Burlington

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER RANKS

as the biggest newspaper published between Washington and Atlanta, and its news service ranks second to none. It is connected with all the principal news centers of the State, the Nation and the World, by three leased wires of The Associated Press, and receives the full night and day double trunk wire service of that greatest of all news gathering agencies. Also it has a corps of correspondents covering the news of the Carolinas by telegraph, telephone and mail, supplementing the work of its own staff and The Associated Press. Its market news and sports departments compare favorably with those of the big metropolitan papers.

In addition to furnishing all the news that is worth printing, The Observer, daily and Sunday, carries a variety of features second to none in the Carolinas, numerous special articles by famous writers, women's features, comics and pictures, and is the only paper in the Carolinas that carries a section devoted to the interests of all Fraternal Orders.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL

	1 Mo.	3 Mos.	6 Mos.	1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday	75c	$2.25	$4.50	$9.00
Daily without Sunday	65c	1.75	3.50	7.00
Sunday Only	40c	1.00	1.75	3.00

Complete Line of SPORTING GOODS COLLEGE SWEATERS ODELL'S, INC. Greensboro, N. C.

DR. J. H. BROOKS
Surgeon Dentist
Foster Building
Burlington, North Carolina

DR. L. M. FOUSHEE
Dentist
Office Near Freeman Drug Co.
Phone 856
BURLINGTON, N. C.

Miss Mary Swanson is teaching in the Wilkesboro school. Miss Swanson was graduated from Elon with the class of '23.