

THE ROAD TO YESTERDAY

AN APPEAL

The staff of MAROON AND GOLD is endeavoring to keep alive the alumni columns founded by the Alumni General Secretary last year. The staff is finding this the hardest part of the paper. We can not keep the column going unless the alumni will rally to its support.

We are appealing to every alumnus for articles by the alumni and for the alumni. There is not time to write a personal appeal for articles, and we trust that this may be sufficient.

Any items of interest to the alumni or ex-students of the college will be welcomed here. It is our earnest hope that we may be able to continue the column, and we hope that every alumnus will respond to this appeal.

THE EDITOR.

WHO AND WHERE

J. B. Newman has returned to Atlanta Dental College, where he will continue his studies. This is Mr. Newman's second year at Atlanta.

R. O. Smith, '22, is teaching at Fairmont, N. C. Mr. Smith has classes in French, English, and science.

Miss Lucy M. Eldredge, '21, who has been quite ill at her home in Erie, Pa. has recovered sufficiently to return to her work in Richmond, Va. Miss Eldredge is field Secretary of the board of Christian Education of the Southern Christian Convention. Her address is 1012 E. Marshall St., Richmond, Va.

Rev. A. T. Banks, '13, who is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Cherryville, N. C., visited college. He was attending the Presbyterian synod meeting at Burlington and Graham.

T. S. Cheek, '22, is teaching and coaching at the Selma high school. Coach Cheek is putting out a winning football team. His gridiron warriors have defeated all opposing teams.

G. C. Donovan, '17, former Alumni General Secretary, has accepted the chair of history at the Shenandoah Collegiate Institute. Prof. Donovan is well fitted for this position, and will be a strong addition to the faculty of that institution.

Victor M. Rivera, '23, has returned to his native land, Porto-Rico. He will be engaged in mission work there. Mr. Rivera's address is Ponce, P. R., general delivery.

Prof. E. M. Betts, '17, former head of the music department here, is doing graduate work at the university of Virginia.

John Brooks, '23, is teaching at Pleasant Garden, N. C. Mr. Brooks has widely varied work.

Dr. H. Shelton Smith, '17, is doing a fine work as field Secretary of Organization and administration under the Board of Christian Education of the General Christian Convention. Dr. Smith's headquarters is at Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Staley Wicker visited Dr. W. C. Wicker the past week. Mr. Wicker has his headquarters at Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Mark C. Lasitter (nee Ether DuRant, class, '12), is spending a few days with her sister, Miss Winnie DuRant. Mrs. Lasitter attended the United Daughters of the Confederacy Convention in Greensboro as a representative of the Greene County Chapter, of which Chapter she is president. She was awarded one of the State prizes during the Convention.

Frederick S. Jones, a member of the class of '99, who dropped out of college, has made good in his chosen profession of law. He is general counsel and first vice president, for two big Richmond corporations: Southern Bond and Mortgage Company, and The Title Insurance Company. He has a beautiful home in Ginter Park and a charming family of two sweet girls, Constance (12) and Marion (10). He and his wife are both prominent in Christian work and social life. Mr. Jones is editor of The Ginter Park Citizen, an excellent paper of cultured community life.

COLLEGE STUDENTS AND THE RED CROSS

There is probably no word harder worked in the colleges and universities today than "vision." And it is because of this quest of vision that students are thinking with a clarity, a degree of penetration, an inclusiveness, and an earnestness of purpose which did not characterize preceding generations. Underneath a certain surface lightness engendered by the healthful give-and-take of present day campus life, there is developing a fibre which will stand the test of the epoch upon which the world is entering.

The Red Cross, national and international, recognizes the fact that in the American colleges and universities of today is to be found its leadership for tomorrow, in a work which perhaps more than any other is interpreting to the world at large the full scope and meaning of the ideal of the Brotherhood of Man. Consequently it voices at this time an appeal to the students of America, not only for support in the oncoming American National Red Cross Roll call, November 11-29, but for serious constructive study of the work and methods of the Organization, looking toward the day when they will assume their rightful positions of community, state and national leadership.

The demands of the time are increasingly complex, and the future is heavily charged with forces which as yet defy analysis. It is not by chance that you have come to your high place in life. We believe that it is for a purpose, and that without the best each one can do in service to his fellowmen, all life must be poorer in the end.

Will you not therefore, stand with the unconquerable will of a Sidney Lanier to the ideal of service? Through years of poverty which he could have changed by sacrifice of his ideals, and through a greater number of years of illness from tuberculosis, which he had not the power to change, the beloved poet of the Southland struggled on, until with a temperature of 104, and while too weak to feed himself, he penciled his last and greatest poem, "Sunrise," afraid that he would die ere the completion of his task.

"Knowledge we ask not—knowledge Thou has lent;
But Lord, the will—there lies our bitter need;
Give us to build above a deep intent,
The deed, the deed!"

MRS. HARPER HOSTESS AT DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Mrs. Chandler, where Mrs. Kirkland, Misses Florence Fisher, Ethel Hill, Annie Watson, and Anna Helfenstein assisted in receiving them. Ice cream, cake, mints, and olives were served.

Miss Mary Graham Lawrence then directed them into the punch room where they were received by Misses Madge Moffitt, Mary D. Atkinson, and Josephine Farmer, where punch was served.

The college orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

PERSONALS

Miss Frankye Marshall spent the week-end at her home in Dennis, N. C.

Miss Zondal Meyers spent the week-end at her home in Thomasville, N. C.

Mr. H. E. White, '22, spent Sunday afternoon on the Hill.

MRS. HARPER DELIVERS ADDRESS ON TRIP WEST

Special Feature of Recent Y. W. C. A. Meeting—Lecture is Illustrated by Slides.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting on Sunday evening was the most interesting one that has been held this year. The main feature of the program was an address by Mrs. W. A. Harper on "My Trip Through the West."

The meeting opened with a song service. "Follow the Gleam" and "All Hail the Power" were sung. The association was then led in prayer by Dr. W. C. Wicker.

Three other numbers of special interest were: A solo by Miss Florence Fisher, with violin obligato by Miss May Stanley, and a reading, "Out Where the West Begins," by Dr. Anna Helfenstein. The reading was intended to impart to the audience enough of the spirit of the west to make Mrs. Harper's address more fully appreciated.

Dean A. L. Hook introduced the speaker of the evening who was already well known to the audience. Mrs. Harper's address was intensely interesting. Dean Hook showed slides of some of the places visited, thus increasing its interest.

Mrs. Harper stated that she could mention only the most important things seen on the trip. She mentioned the Indians and their homes and habits, the grand canyon, the oil wells, the beautiful cities in California, and finally the home and family of Mr. Orban, who made Elon a present of $50,000.

Due to the Christian Endeavor program the lecture was not finished, but will probably be continued next Sunday evening. The meeting closed with a special song by the choir, and the benediction by Dr. J. O. Atkinson.

IOTA TAU KAPPA TAKES PLACE AMONG STUDENTS

Three Men Are Initiated Into New Organization—Gives Promise of Good Work.

The Alpha Eta Chapter of the Iota Tau Kappa blooms out among the young men of the student body. The Iota Tau Kappa is a Greek Letter organization which has recently been formed, and recognized by the Faculty of the Institution.

With the charter members and the new members that have been taken into the Iota Tau Kappa recently, the future is great. Gleaming rays of integrity of the Iota Tau Kappa have already been transmitted into the entire student body, and it is only a question of a short time until the Iota Tau Kappa will be a gleaming star in the crown of the history of Elon College.

The charter members are: J. R. Barker, G. A. Kirkland, W. C. Elder, W. J. Apple, and R. C. Brown. They are all young men of high standing both with the faculty and the entire student body.

Mr. Barker is a member of the senior class, and President of the student senate. Kirkland, Apple, Elder, and Brown are all members of the present junior class, and hold many distinctions among the student body.

The new members who have recently been taken into the club are as follows: F. J. Allston, Lawrence Hiatt and James Rogers. Messrs. Allston and Hiatt are members of the junior class, and are well known by every student on the campus for their ability as athletes.

Mr. Rogers is a member of the present freshmen class.

Misses Freda Dimmick and Alice Barrett spent the week-end with Miss Marjorie Burton at her home in Greensboro, N. C.

Misses Mary and Wiley Stout had as their guests Friday and Saturday Misses Edna and Janette Stout, of Sanford, N. C.
