

$250 in Prizes

What 10 words best describe the new cap?

As you see, the Williams' Shaving Cream Cap is hinged on and can't get lost. Tell us how it helps you. Do you find it a time-saver? Do you, because of it, find greater satisfaction in quick-working Williams' lather, so gently beneficial to your skin? Read our offer; then write us a winning slogan.

Our prize offer

For the best sentence of ten words or less on the value of the Williams' Hinged Cap, we offer the following prizes: 1st prize $100; 2nd prize $50; two 3rd prizes, $25 each; two 4th prizes, $10 each; six 5th prizes, $5 each. Any undergraduate or graduate student is eligible. If two or more persons submit identical slogans deemed worthy of prizes, the full amount of the prize will be awarded to each. Contest closes at midnight, March 14th, 1924. Winners will be announced as soon thereafter as possible. You may submit any number of slogans but write on one side of paper only, putting name, address, college and class at top of each sheet. Address letters to Contest Editor, The J. B. Williams Co., Glastonbury, Conn.

TWO PLAYS ARE GIVEN AT DRAMATIC MEETING

Seniors in Expression Coach Work of Girls for Club—Coming Program of Readings.

The Dramatic Club held its regular November meeting Friday, November 30th, in the parlor of West Dormitory. The program consisted of two one-act plays, given by the girls of the club and coached by the two girls who are to be graduated from the department this year.

The first play was "The Chinese Dummy." The girls who took part in this are taking their first training in Expression this year. The following persons took part: Misses Emily Midgette, Gwendolyn Patton, Mary Herbert Watkins, Zondel Meyers, Mamie Sockwell, and Lillie Horne.

The second play was entitled "When Women Vote." The players who presented this are experienced in the work of the Expression Department. Misses Mary Lee Williams, Nannie Aldridge, Victoria Adams, Lucy Austin, Alma Smith were the young ladies who presented this play.

The meeting was greatly enjoyed. After the plays were presented the club adjourned to meet again in December and present a series of readings consisting of short American poems.

MUSIC STUDENTS RENDER AN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Selections from American and Foreign Composers Are Given—Miss Malone's Solo is Feature.

The program given last Tuesday afternoon by members of the music class was an excellent one. It was varied and pleasing, consisting of selections from foreign and American composers. The following is the program which was rendered:

- Piano Solo: "Scarf Dance," by Chamindale—Arline Lindsay.
  - Piano Solo: "A Curious Story," by Heller—Fred H. Prescott.
  - Vocal Solo: "Caro mio ben," by Guisepppe—Della Cotten.
  - Piano Solo: "Dance of the Sprites," by Morrison—Annie June Hornaday.
  - Vocal Solo: "Called Away," by Basset—Mary Hall Stryker.
  - Piano Solo: "Witching Time o' Night," by Marie Crosby—Marie Nobles.
  - Violin Solo: "To Spring," by Grieg—Allie Malone.
  - Piano Solo: "Romance," by Saint Saen—May Lowry.
  - Piano Duet: "Fanfare," by Bohom—Arline Lindsay and Ruth Von Cannon.
  - Vocal Solo: "Dreaming Time," by Lily Strickland—Marion Lee Newman.
  - Piano Solo: "Hungarian Dance," (No. 6) by Brahms—Hennie Malone.
- Perhaps the best number of the program was the violin solo, by Miss Allie Malone, accompanied by her sister, Miss Hennie Malone. Each number, however, was splendid: and gave evidence not only of careful instruction on the part of the teachers, but of true musical ability on the part of the student.

"You're drunk," cried Mike to his partner. "O'im not. You're mistaken," said Pat. "Begorry, and if I was sober, You couldn't be talkin' like that." "Bejabbers, if you were sure sober," Said Mike, flashing old Irish spunk, "Ye would then have the sense, ye poor lubber, To know that you sure are drunk."

Stude: "Pardon me, sir, are you a prof in the math department?" Goof: "No, I only swore off on hair cuts until the Memorial Building is erected."
