Root—"This picture is entitled 'Fleas.'"

Beer—"No doubt by one of our famous modern etchers."

Hunt—"Where'd you buy the new suitcases?"

Joyner—"They're not suitcases; they are my new pair of shoes."

Grandpa—"What did you draw just now, little Emmalina?"

Emmalina—"I started to draw a picture of you, but it didn't look exactly like you, so I put a tail on it and called it a dog."

Famous Wines

—the deuce did you do that?"

Battle of Brandy

Genn

I'se g home.

"How did you lose your hair?"

"Worrying."

"What did you worry about?"

"Losing my hair."

Suggestion to Simp Bryant: The way to get more cheering out of the students is to give them root beer before the game.

No, no, Isabel, they won't let half-sisters in the movies on one ticket.

The melancholy days have come,

The saddest of our annals;

It's far too cold for B. V. D.'s

And far too hot for flannels.

Joe McConnell—"Where you going with that gum?"

Bob Walker—"To kill that little bird that tells my girl everything."

Lord Helper—"Mr. Boggs, your wash jumped all over the laundry last week."

Boggs—"Musta been my athletic underwear."

Archie Reeves—"What did you make today?"

Buster Gray—"A sixteen on the first hole, a fifteen on the second hole, a seventeen on the third hole, and then I blew up."

Girls' boarding school—an institution of yearning.

"Willie, you may eat all the jelly you want to; but stay out of the traffic jam."

Cheer up, old thing, you're not as bad off as Jonah, and he came out all right.

"How did you catch such a cold?"

"Somebody played 'The Star Spangled Banner' while I was taking a bath."

Alice C.: "What is garlic?"

Grace C.: "I don't know. Botany, I suppose."

Alice: "No garlic is the breath of a nation."

John H.: "Why is your face so sad?"

Meta: "Cause."

John: "Cause why?"

Meta: "Cosmetics."

Marcella (receiving a broken straw at the soda fountain): "My sucker is broke."

Hank: "Well, you needn't bawl me out right here in front of everybody." —Polytechnic Reporter.

Professor: "And now that I have proved the infinite age of the earth, are there any questions to be asked?"
Student: "Yes. What time is it?"

From King College News

Lema: (Speaking of the trip around the world) Gene, what country are you to represent?

Gene: I'm Japan.

Lema: Well, what's Nell? I believe she's to be something else.

Oh yes, she's a Jap.

Laugh This Off

Motorist: "Hey you oughta look out!"

Victim: "Wassa matta, you gonna back up?"—Lafayette Lyre.

Have you seen The Torch?

Brighten it, follow it.

Mother: "What time did Jack leave last night?"

Daughter: "Eleven o'clock."

Mother: "Don't tell me a lie; I heard him say as he left, 'just one.'"

Sister: "Aunt Jennie, have you seen sister's fiance?"

Aunt Jennie (Washerwoman): "No sah, it ain't been in de wash yit."

An old woman at the circus was strolling through the menagerie, when she stopped dead still before the kangaroo cage and read the sign there: "Native of Australia."

"Good Lord," she cried, "and John married one of them."—Exchange.

"This is positively the last straw!" exclaimed the Hawaiian girl as she finished dressing. —Sun Dial.
