

LYNCHBURG DOWNS ELON TO TUNE OF TWELVE TO NOTHING IN SLOW GAME

One Forward Pass and One Intercepted Pass Net Two Touch-Downs For Virginians.

PUNT USED FREQUENTLY

The Maroon and Gold eleven lost to Lynchburg last Saturday, twelve to nothing. The game was played on an ideal day and both teams seemed to feel the urge of the weather. Despite the fact that there was some real football played by both teams the game proved to be rather slow throughout. Both teams had to resort to the punt frequently. Lynchburg scored first early in the first period, from a forward pass. After this the Elon team stiffened and the Lynchburg offense never again regained its original driving power.

In the fourth quarter there was enacted a very odd bit of football. Elon punted from her own territory and the Lynchburg safety man fumbled, giving Elon the ball on their thirty yard line. Time was getting short and Elon elected to pass. Carpenter, fast Lynchburg halfback, intercepted the pass and scored a touchdown from where he caught it.

MEETING SUNDAY NIGHT DISCUSSION OF COURAGE

E. M. Hook Leads Y. M. C. A. Gathering.

The young people's meeting on last Sunday evening was conducted by the Y. M. C. A., and was on the whole one of the best given this year. The subject for the evening was "Courage." R. M. Hook, as leader, opened the meeting by a general discussion of courage.

"The Courage To Do Right" was discussed by W. P. Lawrence, Jr. Mr. Lawrence spoke of the courage to do right in our national government and in our individual lives.

"The Courage To Go Ahead" was the subject of a talk by T. R. Ruston. Mr. Ruston cited several instances in our history where men have achieved success by the courage to go ahead.

A. B. Johnson read an interesting poem and made a short talk on the courage to carry out our beliefs.

J. L. Lynch made a short talk on "Courage To Wait."

Taking as his subject, "Courage To Obey," E. H. Thompson gave instances in contrast from the Bible and developed his speech. He made one of the best talks heard lately in these meetings.

"Courage Through Faith" was discussed by A. N. Greene. Mr. Greene took several recent incidents of courage through faith and developed a very interesting talk.

The meeting was dismissed by the leader.

Hawkeye: "Have you taken a shower?"

Chubby Walker: "No, is one missing?"

"Young man, were you trying to catch that train you were just running after?"

"No, no; just chasing it out of the station."—Selected.

He: "Je t'adore."

She: "Shut it yourself."

PRESS ASS'N ROYALLY ENTERTAINED BY U. N. C.

Henry Peel Represents Elon at Convention. Annuals Voted Into N. C. C. P. A.

The tenth semi-annual convention of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association was held at Chapel Hill, N. C., November 12-14. The delegates were royally entertained. Among other things they were given complimentary tickets to two dances and to the Carolina-Davidson football game. Henry Peel, managing editor of the Maroon and Gold, was the Elon delegate to the convention.

The first session was held Thursday night. Mr. W. N. Keener, editor of the Durham Herald addressed the delegates on "The Newspaper." The college newspaper is filling a prominent place and there is a newspaper field open for college-trained men in North Carolina education, according to the speaker.

Friday morning's meeting was featured by an address, "Freedom of the College Press," by E. G. Moore of N. C. State, President of the Association. Reports from college publications, and general business session in which the college annuals were unanimously voted into the Association consumed the remainder of the meeting.

Friday afternoon was taken up by discussion groups concerning newspapers, magazines and annuals.

In the evening a sumptuous banquet was given at Carolina Inn. This was followed by a dance in Bynum gymnasium, given by the "13" Club.

Saturday morning a business session and discussion groups were held. The convention accepted an invitation to meet at Guilford College next spring. Many of the delegates stayed over for the Carolina-Davidson championship game and for an informal dance given in Swain Hall.

This was indeed a very helpful and interesting convention. The delegates will not soon forget Carolina's hospitality.

WARE'S VIOLIN RECITAL AN ENJOYABLE EVENT

Her Playing Characterized by Smoothness of Tone, But Lacked Dash.

The violin playing of Helen Ware at her recital in Whitley Auditorium on Tuesday evening was of the highest order. Her program contained some of the most difficult numbers in violin literature but technical difficulties do not seem to exist for her. A smoothness of tone and clearness in the rapid passages were outstanding characteristics of her playing. Her playing was distinguished more by non-balance than by exaggeration and at times one longed for a bit more dash.

Highlights of the program were the Romance from the Wieniawski Concerto, her own Canary and Wildbird and the Carmen Fantasy arranged by Hubay.

Her encores were very well selected and received the hearty applause of the audience. As encores she used a German Waltz by Hummel, an arrangement of Carry Me Back to Old Virginia by Bland, a Brahms Waltz and a little Cradle Song, written by herself.

The singing of Miss Avery was not up to the standard set by Miss Ware. Both violonist and singer were accompanied by Charles Ferry, who is the organist at the President's church in Washington.

BREATHE FREE THOUGHT FRANK URGES STUDENTS

Brilliant Pres. of University of Wis. Declares Colleges Should Teach "How" Not "What" to Think.

Democracy may be stabbed to death in its universities.

Everything depends upon the kind of universities a democracy develops. Universities that teach their students WHAT to think are a danger to democracy. Universities that teach their students HOW to think and then trust them to decide what to think from year to year in a growing world are democracy's one indispensable safeguard.

The university is not a retail store dealing in facts; the university is a temporary retreat from the world where young men and women may breathe the air of freedom and achieve emancipation from the obsolete dogmas, the unworthy loyalties, the irrational inhibitions, the tribal conformities, and the cowardly precautions that crush and kill the uneducated mind.

May I repeat that if the university attempts to safeguard popular thought by teaching the students what to think instead of how to think the university becomes the betrayer instead of the saviour of democracy. Trying to run a university with a set of changeless doctrines instead of with courageous and creative minds is like sending a child into life equipped with book maxims instead of character.

BEAR-CATS HOLD THE VARSITY TO LOW SCORE

Game Wednesday Results in 14-7 Score. Cox Stars For The Scrubs.

On Tuesday afternoon the Burlington High School team was supposed to come and play the Bear-Cats on Corner field but due to some misunderstanding they did not come. In order not to disappoint the students who had come to the field and to give the Bear-Cats a try-out, Coach Corboy matched them against the varsity. The game proved to be interesting despite the difference that is supposed to exist between the two teams. The scrubs succeeded in holding the varsity and the referee to the small score of 14 to 7.

The outstanding feature of the game was a fifty-yard run by "Tubby" Cox. He picked up a varsity fumble near the middle of the field and raced nearly to the goal line before he was brought to earth. Other features of the game were a lack of fight on the part of the varsity and the scrapping spirit of the Bear-Cats. The Bear-Cats have consistently shown more fighting spirit this year than has the varsity. The scrub team has played two teams as much out of their class as any teams that the varsity has run up against and they have been scored on only four times.

PSYKALEONS DISCUSS THE AMERICAN FARMER

Misses Wright, Kimball and Deaton Are Best on The Program.

ELON IS DIVIDED ON THE WORLD COURT QUESTION

Prof. Barney, A. K. Moore and Henry Peel Participate in Discussion Before Student Body.

Things were going well for the World Court last Wednesday until Prof. Barney threw a monkey wrench into the machinery which A. K. Moore and Henry Peel had set in operation. The occasion of this mix-up was the Armistice Day service here when the Elon student body was asked to vote on four proposals concerning the Permanent Court of International Justice. The proposals were as follows:

(1). United States participation under the Harding-Hughes plan. (The United States not to be connected with the League of Nations or bound to any obligations under the League Covenant; not to be bound to advisory opinions not voluntarily submitted by the United States.)

(2). United States participation under the "Harmony Plan" of thirty peace leaders. (United States to join the Court under the Harding-Hughes plan but to withdraw after five years unless international law has been codified, outlawing war and giving the Court jurisdiction.)

(3). United States participation under the Borah plan. (The United States not to join the Court until international law has been codified outlawing war, and the Court given jurisdiction; the United States not to be thereby connected with the League of Nations.)

(4). United States not to participate in the World Court at all.

Prof. T. E. Powell had charge of the services. He read the proposals and introduced the speakers.

Mr. Moore spoke first, declaring that he believed proposal No. 2 to be the one which the United States should accept. The United States has taken a dominant part in attempts to establish such a court and American soldiers in the World War poured out (Continued on Page 2)

STATE C. E. CONVENTION IS HELD AT CHAPEL HILL

Misses Lillie Horne and Marie Nobles Are Elon Delegates.

Misses Lillie Horne and Marie Nobles were the Elon delegates to the State Christian Endeavor Convention, which met at Chapel Hill, N. C., November 14 and 15. Saturday afternoon the delegates arrived, registered and were sent to different homes. Saturday evening a most delightful party was given in the entertainment rooms of the Presbyterian church. Attractive souvenirs were given so that all might remember the social.

Sunday morning a special address was given on "The Work of Christian Endeavor," by the Dean of the University of North Carolina. At eleven o'clock Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College, gave a very interesting lecture, concerning the young people of today.

Sunday afternoon the pastor of the Chapel Hill Christian church gave a short talk. Then Miss Pattie Coghill, of Henderson N. C., led a most interesting and helpful discussion of the young people. Professor S. L. Bennett, of Elon College, also gave a talk which added to the interest of the program.

Before the meeting was over a motion was adopted which gave the Christian Endeavor the right to organize a convention separate and apart from the Sunday school convention.

FIGHTING CHRISTIANS TO PLAY EMORY AND HENRY

Virginians Are Apparently Evenly Matched With Elon Squadron.

A football team from Emory and Henry College comes here next Saturday. The only eleven which both Emory and Henry and Elon have played this year is Lynchburg. Lynchburg won over Elon 12 to 0 and forced the Emory and Henry aggregation to bite the dust by a 13 to 0 score. Last year Elon lost at Emory, Va., while the year before we came out victorious on our home field. Lenoir-Rhyne has defeated the Virginians this year 13 to 10. From the comparative scores it would seem that the two teams are about evenly matched. Yet the game is to be played on our home field and the Maroon and Gold squadron is smarting under several consecutive defeats. Although King's Mountain Tornado and Duke's Blue Devils were both held to 6-0 scores, so far Elon has succeeded in winning from Guilford alone. The Fighting Christians will bend every effort to be the victors Saturday and to chalk up another game on the debit side of their ledger.

Elon will be handicapped by the loss of Harrell, sterling backfield man. An injured knee, resulting from the Lynchburg contest, will keep him out of the game. It is very doubtful whether the injuries of Brown and Byerly will be sufficiently healed to permit them to get into the fray.

VIOLIN AND HUNGARIAN MUSIC ARE DISCUSSED

Prof. Velie Explains Both to Music Lovers' Club. Four Members Received.

The Music Lovers' Club of Elon College held its regular session Monday night just preceding the concert of Helen Ware, violinist, on Tuesday evening. At that time Professor C. J. Velie, head of the music department of the college, and president of the Music Lovers' Club, gave a most interesting talk on the history and construction of the violin, and an explanation of the numbers to be played by Miss Ware the following evening.

Professor Velie illustrated his talk by piano selections, and played a typical Hungarian selection by Liszt, The 8th Rhapsodie. Miss Pauline Shoop, who was also to appear on the program to illustrate the tones and particulars of the violin, was ill and could not be present.

Miss Ware in her concert Tuesday night especially delighted her audience with the Hungarian dance melodies. "Carmen Fantasy" by Bizet-Hubay was an especially appreciated number on her program.

At the regular meeting of the club four new members were received, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Rothgeb, Miss Hattie Brown, and Mr. R. H. Gunn being elected to membership.

One item of importance was passed on at that time, the sponsoring of the Sunday evening vesper services by the Club. A committee was appointed to have in charge this service and to make all arrangements for it.
