CLASS OF '29

(By a Freshman)

In the name of dear old Elon,
And the class of '29.

We shall try to do our duty,
As is worthy of our mind.

When we first came on this campus,
Freshmen, we as green as grass,
Tho' we're still, we're looking forward;
To the time when 'twill be past.

It is said that we are brightest,
Of the classes of our time,
But if you wish to see it proven,
Watch the class of '29.

So we'll be as freshmen should,
And we'll do as we are told.
For we'll always boast "Old Elon."
And we'll praise "Maroon and Gold."

Miss Susie Elder spent the week-end in Burlington.

Lives there a man with wit so dead as to say that college men and preachers never work? If so he should have been at the new Methodist church site at Newport News, Va., last Tuesday. Under the leadership of Prof. H. Babcock a hefty group of college men and preachers donned overalls and hobnails and began excavating the earth over which their Sunday school room is to be built. Night found them deep in the earth.

Evidently the professor is a popular teacher. He is requiring more room, due to the congregation caused by the rapid increase of his student congregation.

Prof. Babcock is a graduate and former faculty member of Elon.

"To students who have never learnt 'How to Study,' work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.
