

never heard Tuck, even when he had good reason to be plenty irritated, gripe about anything.

Tuck is a gentleman, leader and sportsman. He's a game fellow and can be counted as valuable in any man's list of friendship. Above all Tuck is a good loser and an excellent athlete.

While bouquets are still in order you may hand Rusty Jones and his clever netmen a nice quantity. They deserve it.

Thus far they've licked every bit of competition which has dared come their way. During this writing the AP informs the public that Artie Greenwald was defeated 6-3, 6-1, and L. E. Smith was given his opener through a default of his opponent in our Christian netmen's invasion of the swanky North and South tennis meet at Pinehurst April 15-20. Rusty and Gordon Crabill had not played their matches.
