

Elon Cagers Seek Conference Laurels

Thirty-Seven Students Are Listed for First Semester Honor Roll Grade Averages

Sophomore Class Heads List With Largest Total Number of Members to Make Rating; Seniors Second

MAJORITY FROM STATE

Twenty-Six of the Honor Students are Natives of North Carolina

Thirty-seven students attained high honors for rating on the first semester honor roll list at Elon College for the opening half of the present college year, according to the final rating released recently by Dean A. L. Hook, registrar.

Of the complete total, the sophomore class heads the list with 12 members of the second-year class represented on the honor roll. The senior class ran second in the ratings with a total of 10 members on the list. The list represents approximately 9 per cent of the total enrollment.

The majority of the honor roll students are from the state of North Carolina, with 26 of the 37 being from this state. Other states represented include Ohio, three; New York, three; Virginia, two; New Jersey, one; Connecticut, one; and Pennsylvania, one.

The complete list of honor-roll students follows: Marcella Ackenhausen, Cincinnati, Ohio; Wayne Bowman, Norfolk, Virginia; Edith Brannock, Elon College; Virginia Brietenberger, Forest Hills, N. Y.; Louise Brandler, Irvington, N. J.; Margaret Chason, Lumber Bridge; Mary Nell Eaves, Henderson; Edythe Ernst, Cincinnati, Ohio; Ruby Lee Foster, Burlington; Sue Galloway, Hamlet; Ralph Garner, Newport; Charlie Garrison, Burlington; Eugene Gordon, Brown Summit; Lofan Harris, Siler City; Hilda Heatwole, Burlington; George T. Holmes, Snow Hill; Christine Holt, Graham; Sara Virginia Hook, Elon College; John Horton, Ellington, N. Y.; Altie Hunter, Sanford; Ben Hurst, New Bern; Virginia Johnson, Elon College; Howard Jones, Wadesboro; Harry Kames, Brooklyn, N. Y.; William H. Minarik, Vandergrife, Penn.

Henry Morgan, Prospect Hills; Jack Neese, Reidsville; Junius Neese, Graham; Joe Padgett, Shelby; James W. SALVI GROUP PRESENTS LYCEUM CONCERT HERE

Unique Quintet Delights Large Audience With Varied Program in Whitley Memorial.

Alberto Salvi's instrumental quintet presented the third concert in the spring Lyceum series Monday, February 15, in the Whitley Memorial Auditorium.

Mr. Salvi, justly acclaimed the world's greatest harpist, gave a remarkable demonstration of the achievements to be attained upon the "instrument of romance," the harp. The unique quintet includes, in addition to the harpist, Carolina Selfronk, an excellent flutist, Florence Gindl, a violinist of remarkable ability, Robert Alexa, an accomplished musician at the viola, and Alfred Mazzari, efficient violoncellist.

The program included an old French sonata, composed by Loeillet; the Quartette in D Major by Mozart, the last two movements of which brought back memories of the last act of THE MERCHANT OF VENICE; by the complete quintet. Mr. Salvi played as solos the Aeolian Prelude (Etude in A Flat) by Chopin, and The Fountain, an original composition.

After the intermission, Mr. Salvi rendered as solos his own arrangement of the Bach Bourée in B Minor, the Haydn Minuetto, and his own Waltz de Concert. The entire ensemble concluded with the Quintette by Jean Cras, a delightful modern composition and a fitting close for a well-spent evening.

IRIS SHEPHERD

Iris Shepherd Is Chosen as Queen Of Elon Campus

Freshman Co-Ed Selected as "Miss Elon" in Annual Beauty Pageant Here

Miss Iris Shepherd, of Burlington, was selected as queen of the campus and crowned "Miss Elon" at the annual beauty pageant held under the sponsorship of the Student Christian Association of the college here last week.

Miss Shepherd, a member of the freshman class at Elon, was chosen by the judges over a list of 20 entries in the pageant, each being sponsored by campus organizations. Miss Shepherd was sponsor of the freshman class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Shepherd of 107 Park View Drive.

Selected as attendants to "Miss Elon" were Miss La Verne Porterfield, sponsored by Sigma Phi Beta fraternity; Miss Jackie Morris, sponsored by the Maroon and Gold, college newspaper; Miss Blanche Wagner, sponsored by the senior class; and Miss Margaret Galloway, sponsored by Elon Singers.

Entertainers on the program included Miss Catherine Paris, of Greensboro, who rendered several popular songs; Cooper Whitfield, songs; Al Mastro and guitar; James Parker and his violin; Ralph Garner and his accordion; and Miss Gwendolyn Tillmans, readings. BILL AYCOCK IS GUEST SPEAKER FOR CHAPEL

Bill Aycock, president of the North Carolina Federation of Students, North Carolina State College graduate, and vice-president of the Federation last year; was our guest speaker in chapel on Monday.

Being well informed on student problems, having been a student leader during his four years at State and a leader among the students of North Carolina for two years, he made a very interesting talk on student problems and government. During the Christmas holidays he attended the convention of the National Federation of Students in New York City. In March he will be in charge of the Southeastern Federation of Students' Convention to be held in New Orleans.

As a result of the expulsion of the president of the Federation last year, it was necessary for Bill to take charge at the last minute of the convention being held in Greenville. This year he will be in charge of the convention of the North Carolina Federation of Students, which will be held at the King Cotton Hotel in Greensboro on April 14, 15, and 16. At present he is studying political science as a graduate student at the University of North Carolina.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL SESSION

The annual mid-year meeting of the Elon College general Alumni Association was held here Saturday, February 13.

W. G. Stoner, of Greensboro, and Prof. W. D. Loy, of Charlotte, were principal speakers for the meeting. In addition to President Atkinson, Prof. M. L. Patrick of High Point, general secretary, was in charge of arrangements and discussions.

The meeting was a regular business session of the Alumni Association, and several important matters were up for discussion.

Neophytes Beginning To Realize All Is Not A Bed of Roses As Greek Order Holds Initiations

In the midst of initiation the young Greeks are realizing that the "dear old fraternity" is not all roses as it was painted during the hollycon rushings days.

Hard blows with stiff paddles are being handed out by the "brothers" to the neophytes who are undergoing the transitional period from pledging to full membership. There's many a twist and turn from pledging to initiation and many a hard blow on the steep and narrow way.

To those who have gone through the experience and proudly wear the pin of Alpha, Alpha, Alpha on their breast, there is a look of mild satisfaction, yet mingled with it there

CHRISTIANS FACE APPALACHIAN STATE IN CLOSING BASKETBALL CONTEST OF YEAR ON COURT OF NORTH GYM HERE TONIGHT

Sponsors Contest

DR. L. C. DICKINSON

Dr. Dickinson to Sponsor Contest For Dog's Name

One Year's Subscription to Esquire Magazine to be Given As Prize

Dr. Dickinson has a dog without any name. Think of that; a wee small pup without a "moniker." Now ain't that a shame? So in view of this fact, Dr. Dickinson is going to sponsor a contest to name his mutt. It has been declared that the winner of this "name the pooch contest" will receive for his efforts, a one-year subscription to the "Esquire" Magazine.

- Now the good doctor has set down certain rules to go along with his contest:
1. The naming is open to any nincompoop who cares to enter.
 2. All names must be printed on clean white writing paper, in ink, and handed to the doctor on or before midnight of March 25.
 3. There will be no bribing.
 4. Shake well before using.

So you see, this is an easy chance to win for yourself a subscription to the "Esquire" Magazine. All you gotta' do is call a dog a name.

Three able-minded judges (how is that for leg-pulling?) 'bout as good as Ben Hurst, have been chosen to select the winning name: Dean Husband, Dr. French, and Dr. Burrows. Dig deep into the annals of history and bring forth a name by which this caninity can be called. It is a "he."

HOME ECONOMICS GROUP MEMBERS HEAR LECTURE BY NATIONAL SECRETARY

Representatives From Elon Club Attend Lecture at Woman's College in Greensboro.

DAN WATTS

Gordon Is Elected As President For Literary Society

Succeeds Cheshire as Leader of Dr. Johnson Literary Organization During Spring Semester.

The Dr. Johnson Literary Society elected, at the last meeting of the first semester, its new officers who will hold their respective positions until the end of the present school year. Eugene Gordon succeeds Milton Cheshire as president.

Mr. Cheshire, while president, was mainly instrumental in making the organization as popular and strong as it is on our campus today. Big things are expected of Mr. Gordon, and the society members feel that he will prove a capable leader.

The other officers are as follows: Lawrence Cameron, Vice President; Milton Cheshire, Secretary; and Hatcher Story, Treasurer.

The Society has grown to be one of the outstanding organizations of the campus since its founding three years ago. Although several members have been dropped from the roll as a result of the enforcement of the provision of the constitution which provides that a member shall be suspended after missing two consecutive meetings, the Society has its maximum membership of thirty. The organization is active in all the affairs of the campus and has also secured two pages in the college year book, Phippsli.

W. PILAND SUCCEEDS WATTS ON PHIPSICLI

Takes Up New Job As Editor of Year Book; Staff Is Hard at Work.

Although the staff regrets the loss of its editor, Dan Watts, who has left college to take a teaching position, it is still going full blast with Hilda Lee Heatwole and Harold Hilburn assisting Woodrow Piland.

The complete book is expected to be on the press by March 15th. Proofs have been received of various sections and the editors promise a very interesting annual.

Some very clever snapshots have been chosen from those turned in by the students. It isn't too late, however, to give your original snapshot to the staff for publication. Take your films to the Phippsli office and have them developed.

In view of the fact that the staff must have the book to the printer soon, they will be very busy in the office, and it would be appreciated if the students would not disturb them while they are working.

Locals Face Important North State Conference Test in Season Finals Against Strong Rippers' Quintet

LAST MEETING CLOSE

Elon Barely Defeated Rivals in Opening Game at Boone

The Christians will face the last of their basketball contests tonight when they meet the strong Appalachian quintet in the North gym, with the starting whistle at 8 o'clock. At the present the Christians are at the top of the conference ladder along with the High Point Panthers, and this game tonight might be a deciding factor in the who's who of the 1937 conference.

At the past meeting of these two squads, in Boone, the Christians turned out to be the victors in a very close game with the final count being 34 to 32. In this tilt Paul Roye was the leading scorer with a total of 10 points. Both squads played excellent basketball in this game and the tilt tonight should be filled with strong competition.

Coach Walker will likely start the winning combination that he has used in nearly all the past games of this season, Ike Fesmire and Lloyd Whitley at forwards, Hal Bradley at center, With Paul Roye and "Red" Cromlish at guards.

Lloyd Whitley, from High Point, has fitted into the spot left vacant this past season by Howard Smith, and clicks in fine form with Ike Fesmire, veteran forward. Whitley has shown his ability to shoot baskets from all parts of the court, and has been a leading factor in the scoring attack of the Christians.

Hal Bradley, veteran center, has seen no end of duty at his post throughout the whole season. Bradley has been the principle man at this berth and has not been absent from any game but just a very few minutes. He also, has added many points to the score board of the Elonites.

When former Captain John Cameron left school to accept a position as teacher in the public schools of Jonesboro, his position was filled by Richard Cromlish. Cromlish fell right to his now place in the line up and has done a swell job for the remaining part of the season.

Paul Roye, all conference guard and highest scorer for the conference this past season, is again the leading scorer for the Christians. He has a good bid for this same position again this season.

Appalachian will, no doubt, present a stronger squad than the one the Christians played against on the Mountaineer's home court. From all reports their squad has improved steadily throughout the season.

Tonight's tip off will be promptly at 8 o'clock.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL SETS BANQUET DATES

Greek Organization Groups To Hold Annual Affairs During March and April.

Last week the Pan-Hellenic Council met in Dean Messick's office and settled the dates for the banquets of each organization, and also suggested revisions of the rules governing the Greeks.

The Iota Tau Kappa fraternity starts the banquets this year by holding theirs on the 13th of March. They are followed by Alpha Pi Delta, March 25th; Kappa Psi Nu, April 10th; Sigma Phi Beta, April 17th; Tou Zeta Phi, April 24th; and Delta Upsilon Kappa on the night of May 1st.

Each Greek organization is permitted to hold one large social affair a year. This is the annual banquet, which is always held in the spring of the year. The dates of these banquets are always chosen by the Pan-Hellenic Council which is made up of representatives of all the organizations.

At the same meeting many suggestions were made about revising the rules which govern the Greeks. Before these changes can be made, they must be brought up before the faculty at their next meeting and approved.
