Things a lot of us would like: A modern athletic stadium for Elon teams. A stadium suitable for high class football and baseball, which will hold thousands of persons. There is a need for it. North Carolina is gradually becoming more sport conscious every year. And the class of athletics displayed at Elon is definitely on the up grade. They both work together. The nearby cities of Burlington and Greensboro are large enough to support our teams. Big name colleges could be booked and crowds are sure to follow. The whole thing could be worked out through the W. P. A.

To be up in Philadelphia today to see our boys go to work against La Salle. For the first time this year the full first string will be able to play. Lee Fones and Charlie Pitman, erstwhile injured members, are ready to swing back into action. They will join Shelton and Golombek to round out a smooth clicking backfield. Saecker, Causey, and Brannon will be a little more polished; and they should team up well with Captain Archie Israel, "Jay Bird" Fritts, Ben Hurst, and Art Lea, to complete a formidable line. Parker, Donato, Milbury, Palantonio, Kazlow, and several others are bound to see some of the fireworks also.

To be with Roland Longest next weekend up in the Yankee Stadium seeing a couple of the World Series games. Have a good time "Gourdhead", and think of us down here alongside the radio.

The intramural program is really getting underway. There is quite a bit of talk about it going on already, and the season should be a corker.

The Great Jezeboor, Or What Is It?

Jezeboor. It's not another dance craze or a new shop, folks. It's just an old "T Model" Ford, one that has gained quite a lot of popularity in its old age.

We know you've seen it coming up on the campus, chugging but never choking, and with its flashy war paint on, ready to challenge any new streamliner to prove its stamina.

It's as up to date as any with its speed of 45 miles per hour, and the brakes are perfect except for the reverse brake and that is a bain'twister. When you stop on the reverse it looks as if there is mutiny among the wheels. The front and back ones want to go different ways.

The accessories are nice too. There's a horn which works from the footboard and a seating arrangement with the roll-call on the floor. When there is a full house, "Jezebee" looks swell (the sides bulging out). It's bound to, though, with the little misses Virginia Fowler, Celeste Bryant, Nell Tingen and Kathryn Evans, to adorn it.

We envy you, Paul Pittman, but we like "Jezeboor" . . . And the ladies on the roll call.

Extensive Program For Girls' Athletics

Mrs. Hendrickson, director of women's athletics, (play teacher) has arranged an extensive program for the semester. Ping Pong, Shuffleboard, and Volleyball are the three sports now under way. Basketball practice will begin in about a week with the different classes competing. The third class will fight it out with the winner of the meet, between the first and second class, to determine the championship. Badminton, a new game to the students of Elon, will be introduced shortly. The new Gym suits and the new equipment for the various games have come and all the girls are asked to come and take advantage of them. Competition is expected to be much keener this year, due to the fact that the enrollment is so much larger than that of previous years. However, each girl will have an equal opportunity to show her ability in her particular field. It is hoped that the winner of these series of games will have the opportunity to compete with some nearby girls' college. This in itself should prove a great incentive for the betterment of intramurals.

Intramurals

Coach Power has announced his intentions of having a touch football again this season, providing the dormitories and day students enter teams. He stated in chapel last week that all the fraternities had entered teams.

There seems to be a lack of interest among the students generally except the fraternities. With trophies being offered for the winners, and the chance to get out and keep in shape it seems that more enthusiasm would be manifested. The directions of intramurals is under the capable of Coach Power, and he is very much interested in seeing a good intramural program here, but all he can do is to offer his services. The students have to show at least a mild interest if intramurals are to be a success at Elon. If your dormitory hasn't entered a team call all of the fellows together, and go into action. The time to begin play has already passed.

ELON MOVIES

Well, students, we are in for a swell treat this weekend. Errol Flynn, the co-ed's dream, will appear in "The Adventures of Robin Hood," tonight, in Whitley Auditorium. This picture is acclaimed as one of the outstanding films of the year, bringing the famous legendary character and his merry men to romantic and convincing life. To add to an exciting story and an excellent cast, the film is entirely in techni-color, emphasizing the gorgeous costumes and beautiful scenery of "Sherwood Forest."

On October 7 and 8, "Of Human Hearts" has been booked. The picture stars James Stewart, who is known for his whimsical portrayals of war-time heroes.

Society News Wanted

What's happening around here? Socially, we mean. Snip and Snoop will take care of the gossip without any outside aid. Our Society Editor, however, doesn't have such long ears, so she needs a little help in collecting the Society News of the campus. If your club of Frat Sorority is having a big shindig, you are having guests for the weekend, or, lucky kid, are heading for home for a spell, we'd all like to know about it. The Society Editor will probably hear about some of it, but she can't hear it all. How about helping her? Just drop your society notes in the Maroon and Gold box attached to the Bulletin Board, and they will be duly collected and printed. Thanks.

New Cheer Leaders
Pep It Up For Elon

We all can holler, whoop, and yell, under the direction of our newly elected cheer leaders for this year. The student body has spoken — and they elected Galloway Walker, Lib Armfield, David "Shorty" Corey, and Mary Bivins. At the Elon-High Point football game, we were impressed with the talent that these cheer leaders displayed. Now that we have chosen our cheer leaders, let's all give them our wholehearted support, and back our inter-collegiate teams with power and cooperation.

Christians Trample
Panthers In First Conference Game

Elon opened its 1938 North State Conference here today by defeating High Point by 40 to 0. The Panthers fought hard, but were outclassed by the heavier and more experienced protégés of Coach Hendrickson.

Big Joe Golombek paced the Christians to victory by scoring four of the touchdowns. One of the scores was on a thirty-five yard run after an intercepted pass. Another was a thirty-one yard gain off tackle.

Elon's freshmen, who played most of the game, showed us that we have plenty of new talent.

High Point Game

Jawn Henery looked like an All-American snagging those passes . . . "Horse" raisedell at the half — Golembek was definitely on. Wilkerson was just getting in practice for his date, (penalized twice for holding). Laughon shook off about six men on that long run in the third quarter. Earl Wendt, Duke's All-Southern end a few years back, officiated. Lawson and Fones did not get in uniform due to injuries. Axe concentrated on a nice blonde. Ace Parker refuses to wear a helmet. Sez it hurts his head.
