

LIST'NIN'

By Louie Hubbard
Be sure to be tuned in tomorrow night (Sunday) around 8 or 9 for Jimmie Lunceford. I'm sorry that I don't know the exact time or the station, but he will probably come through WWL New Orleans.

Last Tuesday night the Elon faculty could just as well have called the roll in Raleigh, but for last minute news of Artie Shaw's illness. The occasion was to have been the only North Carolina appearance of Art Shaw and his orchestra and was scheduled for the Memorial Auditorium. It is only natural for Shaw, who recently copped No. 1 position in Billboard's popularity poll, to draw a capacity house anywhere.

Jack Teagarden's new band has moved into New York's famed Roseland Ballroom, probably the best known taxi dance hall in the world. The organization which "Big T" has assembled will undoubtedly be in the upper brackets soon. He can be heard on Sundays and Thursdays at 11:30. 'Tis rumored that Teddy Wilson's new band will be ready soon and will replace Woody Herman at New York's Famous Door. In a recent broadcast Bob Hope said, "I was offered $1000 to play opposite Hedy Lamarr but I decided I couldn't afford that much." WPTF, Raleigh, has established the best recorded program on the air, the Sun Dial which can be heard every morning from 6:30-9:00 with the exception of about two 15-minute programs. Catch Phil Baker tonight at 9:00 on CBS for one of the better comedy shows.

One of America's most popular stylists of the dance will be brought to radio through WPTF, Raleigh, Saturday, April 15th, 9:30-10:00 p. m., when the music of Isham Jones and his ork will be aired direct from N. C. State College. Occasion will be the annual "Engineers Brawl" to be held at the college in Frank Thompson Gym.
