Asheboro High School Seniors Visit Campus To Give It Once-Over Approximately If your class was disturbed on the morning of April 26 by visitors peeping in the doors, and your seat was taken on the first shift that same day, you may blame it on approximately seventy seniors from the Asheboro High School, Asheboro, N. C.
Each year these students visit the outstanding college campuses of the state. It so happened this year that Elon found a prominent place on the schedule.
The Students arrived here around $11: 30$ oclock and after an hour of sightseeing they had lunch in the dining hall.
Many nice comments were made about the Maroon and Gold office, Science building, and most of all the lunch and the pleasantness of the student body.
