SOFT BALL CHATTER

Softball play started off with a bang this week, with ten teams lined up and ready to start play. Art Lea announced recently that play this year would be divided into two leagues." Each fraternity will sponsor a team and the Seniors and Faculty combined will round out the fraternity league. The other group will consist of team from the Freshmen, Sophomore and Junior classes, Publishing House and MacDuffie's Independents.

At the close of the season the winners of each league will play a series to determine the championship.

Sigma Phi Number One Team

The Sigma Phi team, last year's champs are seeded in the number one spot and are expected to repeat last year's performance. Jack Boone, captain and ace hurler, has been holding practices and helping the boys to round out into form. In addition to Capt. Boone the following boys from last year's team are working out daily, Saecker, Manzi, Stevenson, Donato, Pearce, Thompson, Wilkerson, King, Macfarland and Brooks. New boys this year are: Shaw, Tysor, O'Conner, Johnson and Allison.

The Publishing House boasts of such stars as: Bagley, manager, Barnett, Malloy, Hall, Hopkins, Bowden, Askin, Zyvith, Mansfield, Visoskey, and Johnston.

This team is improved greatly this season and should be among the top notch teams.

Alpha's Dark Horse

The darkhouse of the leagues should be the Alpha Pi's. Missing from this year's edition are: Graham Hunt, Sam Foushee, Sleepy Jones and Harry Bauknecht. On the other hand Bob Wingard, a freshman, is supposed to be a crack hurler along with Curtiss Jones. Pee Wee Inman is Captain and other members of the team are: Moss, Lawrence, Capp, R. Inman, Foushee, Coleman and Blue.

Little is known about the K. T. team but from all indications they should be stronger in the
