May Day To Be Observed Friday, May 5

With an array of colorful costumes and spring festival dances, the annual May Day celebration will be held on Friday afternoon, May 5, 1944, in traditional fashion.

Main event of the festivities will be the crowning of the King and Queen of the May. Earl Farrell and Hazel Walker. Members of the court, Virginia Jeffreys Darden, Lucille Blacklock, Eliza Boyd, Elizabeth Holland, Mark Andes, Spike Harrell, Walstein Snyder, and Clasence Biddix, with the king and queen, will be entertained by a group of physical education students. Under the direction of Mary Warren and Edna Rumley, the girls will present a number of traditional folk dances, acrobatic stunts, and a Patriotic May Pole Dance. Other entertainment for the afternoon will include voice selections by Jeanne Hook and Piner Kenyon. Helen Margaret Moss, who reigned as Elon's Queen-of-the-May last year, will assist with the celebration as accompanist.

Rumors are being spread to the effect that there may be a gala party following the coronation festivities.

May Day, 1944, promises to be a day long remembered on Elon's campus.

ELIZABETH HILL GIVES

INTERESTING RECITAL

Elizabeth Hill, organist, gave an interesting recital Thursday night which included all Thursdays of composition from Bach to the contemporaries such as Seder, Jenkins, Bartley and Frederick Stanley Smith.

Miss Hill is to be commended upon her daring in exploiting the four-manual organ at her disposal to the fullest. The changes in tonal color were always meaningful and the various shades of expression were not lacking in the softer numbers. The artist's pedal technique was thoroughly sound and showed good training and musicianship. "The Chapel of San Miguel" (Seder) was one of the most striking numbers presented, in which the actual bells of this historic chapel of Santa Fe, New Mexico, are played on the chimes.

Other numbers on the program were Toccata in F (Bach), Arioso (Bach) Sonata in F minor (Mendelssohn), Cantabile (Franck), Dawn (Jenkins), Night (Jenkins), Jubilate Deo (Silver), Canon (Bartley), Introspection (Frederick Stanley Smith) and Piece Heroique (Franck).

A new senior cabinet will be chosen by the president from members of the S. C. A. Members of the cabinet will have charge of vesper programs, morning watch, junior deacons, and membership. Iris Boland has been active on the senior cabinet and will carry out her duties well. The new secretary-treasurer is also a ministerial student and active in the financial S. C. A. The staff wishes them a very successful year in 1944-45.

All senior girls interested in permanent jobs and those juniors seeking employment for the summer were invited to consult him until 12:00.

According to the representative, women are needed to assist research engineers in wind tunnels, tank, and light testing of army and navy aircraft. Also there is a need of mathematicians, artist illustrators, scientific aides, and computers to work with the aeronautical research at Langley Field, Virginia. The salaries for the positions range from $1791 to $2433 per year.

This issue of the MAROON AND GOLD is the last one of the present staff. The next issue of the paper, scheduled for April 29, will be edited by Mary Ellen McCants, of Anderson, S. C., who is at present serving as feature editor of this publication.

Miss McCants has selected her new staff and is ready to take over the operation of the paper. She will have working with her as associate editor Alma Rose Sprinkle of Pfafftown, N. C., and Gene Poe of Rockingham, N. C., serving again in his present capacity as managing editor. Emerson Whatley, of Asheboro, N. C., will continue to have charge of the sports department. The new editor is adding an art department to the staff, and Ed Daniels will be in charge of this.

Mary Cox, of Washington, N. C., who came to Elon last spring to work in the business office after a year in a business college in Raleigh, is well qualified to assume the duties of business manager of the paper. Anne Bigby, of Tampa, Fla., has been appointed circulation manager for the coming year.

MRS. JOHNSON VISITS NIECE IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

"Mrs. Johnson's back?" Yes, that's right. She returned yesterday from her belated Easter vacation, which lasted from April 7 to Thursday, April 13. During that time she visited Lt. Commander and Mrs. John Andrews, her niece, in Washington, D. C.

While in the capital city, Mrs. Johnson visited several former Elon students, including Mrs. Viola Robbins and Stewart Hoskins. She returned to Raleigh by plane and thence to Elon.

"Gosh, and I didn't know she was gone. I was just as quiet in the library as if she had been there."

Lt. Simonson And Nancy Caddell To Be Wed Tonight

At 8:30 tonight, in Whitley Auditorium, Lieutenant Louis Simonson and Miss Nancy Caddell will be married as the culmination of a war-time romance. The public is invited to attend the ceremony. Dr. Leon Edgar Smith, President of Elon, will officiate as the couple are united in marriage. Dick Caddell, brother of the bride, will give her away.

Miss Caddell is a graduate of Elon, a Delta U, and is well-known in this community and in Burlington where she has been teaching. Lt. Simonson, of Petersburg, Virginia, is a graduate of William and Mary, and was a member of the college athletic staff there prior to being commissioned in the army. He has been tactical officer of our Air Service Detachment this past year, and has won the respect of the entire command. His many friends congratulate him and wish him and his bride much happiness.

This will be one of the most colorful of the season's weddings. It had been intended to have the ceremony in June, but the probability of a change in military assignments has brought a change in plans.

The matron of honor will be Mrs. Kenneth Hughes, sister of the bride. William Arthur of Wytheville, Virginia, will be best man. The bridesmaids are to be Mrs. H. Lee Scott, of Farmville, Va.; Mrs. Powell Caddell, of Greensboro; Mrs. Dick Caddell, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Jimmy Caddell, Stanford; Miss Eloise Simonson, Petersburg, Va.; and Miss Laura Mae Holt of Graham. The ushers will be Fred Caddell, Camp Wheeler, Ga.; Kenneth Hughes, Elon; Lt. Mercer West, Memphis, Tenn.; and Harold Dinges, of Charlotte. Miss Kay Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hughes, of Elon, is to be the flower girl.

Annual Senior Dinner Is Given By Dr. And Mrs. Smith

The members of the Senior class were entertained at a formal dinner at the home of President and Mrs. L. E. Smith Friday evening, April 14, at six o'clock.

White lace and red roses made the central theme in the decorative motif. Cocktails were served to the guests upon their arrival. The menu of the main course consisted of fried chicken, fresh green peas, carrots, and potatoes. The cake was decorated with red roses and its cutting was the highlight of a happy evening. Coffee was served in the living room with the after-dinner quips and conversation.

At 8:30 Dr. and Mrs. Smith took their guests to a theatre party in Whitley Auditorium where "Northern Pursuit" was being shown.

It was a lovely dinner and a grand occasion for the class of 1944. To the host and hostess the seniors wish to express again their appreciation.

BODFORS TO APPEAR IN PIANO RECITAL

Franc Bodfors, pianist, will appear in recital Monday night in Whitley Auditorium at 8:30, as the third number of the concert series being sponsored by Elon College. Students will be admitted upon showing their activity tickets.

Mr. Bodfors has studied piano of Artur Schnabel, Rudolph Ganz and Alfred Cortot. His scholastic training included study at Beloit College and Northwestern University.

Coach Pierce To Report To Navy April 23

Coach J. L. Pierce has received his commission as a lieutenant (jg) in the Navy and will leave Elon April 23 to report to Hollywood, Florida, April 25. There he will receive his training at an indoctrination school.

While here, Pierce was director of physical education for the college students as well as the aviation students. He is discontinuing his work in that capacity today.

However, Coach Adcox, who has assisted Coach Pierce this year, will take over the duties vacated by the lieutenant. He will serve for the remainder of the year provided Uncle Sam permits.

Coach Pierce has been a definite addition to our campus life, providing an interesting physical educational program for the students. His absence will be felt by a large number. According to the coach, however, he is planning to return to Elon after the war and continue his work here.

TAU ZETA PHI SORORITY TO HAVE CHARGE OF MONDAY CHAPEL

The Tau Zeta Phi sorority will have April 17. The program committee consisting of Iris Boland, Nell Crenshaw, Jeanne Hook, and Mary Ellen McCants has planned a community sing in order that all may participate.
